Romans 1:18-32 N.E.B.

"For we see divine retribution revealed from heaven and falling upon all the godless wickedness of men. In their wickedness they are stifling the truth. For all that may be known of God by men lies plain before their eyes; indeed God himself has disclosed it to them. His invisible attributes, that is to say his everlasting power and deity, have been visible, ever since the world began, to the eye of reason, in the things he has made. There is therefore no possible defence for their conduct; knowing God, they have refused to honour him as God, or to render him thanks. Hence all their thinking has ended in futility, and their misguided minds are plunged in darkness. They boast of their wisdom, but they have made fools of themselves, exchanging the splendor of immortal God for an image shaped like mortal man, even for images like birds, beasts, and creeping things.

"For this reason God has given them up to the vileness of their own desires, and the consequent degradation of their bodies, because they have bartered away the true God for a false one, and have offered reverence and worship to created things instead of to the Creator, who is blessed for ever; amen.

"In consequence, I say, God has given them up to shameful passions. Their women have exchanged natural intercourse for unnatural, and their men in turn, giving up natural relations with women, burn with lust for one another; males behave indecently with males, and are paid in their own persons the fitting wages of such perversion.

"Thus, because they have not seen fit to acknowledge God, he has given them up to their own depraved reason. This leads them to break all rules of conduct. They are filled with every kind of injustice, mischief, rapacity, and malice; they are one mass of envy, murder, rivalry, treachery, and malevolence; whisperers and scandal-mongers, hateful to God, insolent, arrogant, and boastful; they invent new kinds of mischief, they show no loyalty to parents, no conscience, no fidelity to their plighted word; they are without natural affection and without pity. They know well enough the just decree of God, that those who behave like this deserve to die, and yet they do it; not only so, they actually applaud such practices."

BUSINESS—5

Business is sensitive. It goes only where it is invited and stays only so long as it is well treated. — FRED WARING, U S News and World Report.

BUSINESS—Corporations—6

A corporation's influence upon people for good and evil is impossible to be..
Listen as D. R. Sharp, in his book "A Call to Christian Action," tells about his conversation with a Communist. "I admit," said the Communist, "you have, in the gospel of Christ, a more powerful weapon for renovating society than we Communists have in our Marxian philosophy, but we will beat you in the end." Reminding the young Communist that in America there are 75,000,000 church members and fewer than 100,000 avowed Communists, Dr. Sharp asked how this could be. The young Communist replied, "What's numbers got to do with it? Read again in your own Scripture the story of Gideon and his three hundred faithful and you will have the answer. We are Gideonites; we mean business. We give all our money over and above living expenses, and all our spare time over and above our working and rest hours to the propagation of your Christ. What is the good of your good gospel if you don't practice it, propagate it, sacrifice for it? We will beat you in the end because we believe in our gospel. We will sacrifice for it and take life and death chances for its success."
