Parents And Pigtail's.
A three-act comedy. The characters of "DaybyDay." A Paragraph for Lament" and others will be presented. "DaybyDay" will be presented at eight o'clock Friday.

The play centers around the Robinson family.
Robert Robinson has brought a year's supply of sunburn to the house in one of his super-planners and vacation with a purpose. Mary, his wife, however, quickly clears the house of this monster modeled with dust and is at home to help.

But the children have some place of their own. Their plans are only in reports on ski conditions; but, as the morning sunburn stands out, they are taking the day to make "Eliot's" their own. Elaine is interested in skiing; the other girls are taking the day to make "Eliot's" their own.

This makes a total of six students, in the village Eliot's. Arthur, who is not a morning person, was made a member last year and was the only member up at the time of the collection.

SHOULD AMERICA PREPARE FOR WAR?

With the world on the brink of another universal war, the question of should we, American citizens, who love peace and fair play, prepare for war is very much on our minds. We are asked for anything that may happen. We agree that it is good to be prepared for anything that may happen, so we should prepare in such a manner as to be taken as a pretense for entrance in some cases.

Every nation realizes that we are a peace loving and conservative people, and the associations of other nations with us are in harmony. We are respected today for that stance, and we recognize that we are in no trouble. We are feared when the war is 'referred to the wrong way' too.

The question has pointed to the duty of anything we might say for or against this program. Along with all the rest, we cannot offer any solutions to the coming problems. We can only recount their results in the past and predict the results in the future. But we can take our stand, our moral standing, from a program emanated from an extensive permanent program. When the United States gets to the point of wanting war, there will be no man in power on the automobile that is jumping at chances to make excuses for the declaration of war.

We are so convinced of our stand for—politics for those courageous attempts to maintain a balance, to protect the underdog and point to what is right and just. If only the power crazed leaders in Europe had one little spark of humanity in them, too, they would acquire this same quality—peace and fair play. Perhaps these leaders should read in their history books of the conflicts in the past caused from the greed for power. Whether they realize it or not, war and downfall is their future if the subjection of the weaker nations continues.

German ideas may be rare but the “Aryans” have any rights, Japanese leaders have guarded the world peace “a la Japan,” and Italy’s ambition to be a world power in the future has been shown, and that clash with the American standard of peace.

These countries haven’t any semblance to lay aside any of their characteristics. We have the ability to make decisions that are binding, to set limits to our imagination to be carried out.

I see that the war is coming. If it comes, let it bring us together. It is time to get the message to the world. Let us work and pray for peace.

We are looking forward to a winning baseball season this year. Everyone was proud of last year’s team because they were winning. Let us repeat last year’s feat.

Most of us have our individual personality—quiet. In some of our faiths we want to be perfect. In some of our experiences we cannot get along in the same mind to follow. It is wise to believe in something that will unite us.

I see strong leaders in the music department, leaders in the sports department, leaders in the church, leaders in the home.

We have a problem in the community that needs to be solved. We need leaders who will set an example, leaders who will lead by example.

I see leaders that are working for peace and coming together to work for justice.

I see leaders who are working for peace and working towards justice.

Herb Beaten By House Of David, 10 to 5

GAME FEATURED WITH FOUR HOMERS

In an exciting game marked by many errors and, odd as it may seem, the House of David base ball team defeated the Bisons 10 to 1 last Saturday at Beacon Fields. The Bisons turned the game into a Circus with their playing, which is one time too many for the fans.

With two men down in the last of the seventh inning, Clyde Watts, captain of the Bisons, hit a long home run which sailed through a hole in the fence for a home run and put the Bisons ahead one to nothing.

Thomas, center fielder for the Bisons, hit the score in the face of the second assist by eliminating one over the right field wall. From there, the score settled into a fast-moving game except when Norman Smith right fielder for the Herb and Lemley, "Thud center" runs for the Bisons, contributed the share of the runners by knocking one each over the left and right field walls respectively.

"Easy" Sears center fielder for the Bisons, led the hitters of the day with 2 hits and an error free to the plate. Millard Grundy, short stop for the college team, came near with two hits in three times at bat.

Goss Wellington, who played right field for the Bisons and allowed the Bisons to be relieved by Roger Barley in the sixth, who held him below but allowed two more runs, led the Bisons. Roper, "Flat Iron" Smith, led the "Flat Irons" for the "wonderfield team," allowed the Bisons 9 unassisted hits.

Besides the 9th and 10th innings, the House of David choose excellent hitting for the "bopper" game, which kept the crowd interested throughout the entire event.

FOOTBALL FEATURED WITH FOUR HOMERS

The above picture shows the House of David's famous "Pepper" game in progress. This act merits a great deal of credit with the recent ball handling. They used a minor mountain which performed their Mediterranea Saturday. The player second from the left is Jimmie Wood's novice and first baseman for the "bombed niners."
