JOHN'S RING.

An ordinary day in a Nashville, TN. bank tellers life quickly becomes a memorable occasion. Myra, clueless to her visitors secret, finds that they've acquired a "Prized" possession. But, who's prize it will be? This is an interesting display of friendship and selfishness; showing how three young adult women handle a slippery situation.

SORRY, WRONG NUMBER.

This is a mystery set in 1978 about an irritable, self-centered neurotic, Mrs. Stevenson. While she is on the phone trying to contact her husband, the storm outside causes her phone line to cross over on a conversation of two men plotting a murder. Realizing that the murder is to take place in her building she begins to fear for the poor woman who may be killed. Wait! Could it be her?

THE STILL ALARM.

This is a comedy set in 1938 in a hotel in London. On a business trip, Bob Barclay is visited in his hotel room by an old friend Ed Jamison, who is just about to leave, when they receive the news that the hotel has caught on fire. Their unusual reaction to the imminent danger makes the play a ludicrously hilarious farce whose plot can be interpreted as a good social message of priority or simply a nonsensical spoof on British society.

Cast:

Ed.....	Matt Dickson
Bob.....	Mark Erwin
Bellboy/Fireman#1
.....	Bob Swain
Fireman #2.....	Jon Owen

THE ACTORS NIGHTMARE

What happens when an ordinary accountant gets thrown onto a stage and is required to act? In this show George, the accountant, has to be Hamlet, Elyot, Willie, and Sir Thomas Moore. Anyone who has ever participated in theatre can sympathize with him. This is truly any actors nightmare.

Cast:

George.....	Mark Erwin
Meg.....	Kim Brown
Sarah.....	Shadow Russell
Ellen.....	Tammy Brown
Henry.....	Matt Dickson

SUMMER PEOPLE

The lives of Robert and Janet Allison, an older couple from St. Louis, are relatively structured in the city. They feel safe and uninhibited in their rural summer home beside Lake Seminole in south western Georgia. Once the Allisons break tradition and stay past Labor Day, the people they once believed to be their friends are suddenly cold and unfeeling toward them.

Cast:
