Academy Students Publish Paper, The Umph

By Louise Green

Last Saturday, the Junior English class of the Academy published a paper called "The Umph." This publication was composed of four parts: a summary of the academy, features, a column, and an announcement. The paper is made up of two columns.

The publication was a clear project that has been carried out by the Junior English Class annually. Although new names are being made each year, the academy may also publish a monthly paper called "The Umph." The staff members were: Editor, Charles Buddington; Ass. Ed. Virginia Lipscomb; Features, McCabe and Elston; Column, William Emery Hopper.

The day's activities were con- cluded with the selection of songs by the glee club,一个是早晨广播从大学广播中播放的歌曲是"Jay, Darling." During the radio broadcast, the student body was entertained by a program called "How Shall the Young Secure Their Gle'me."

Bison Capture Meet At Ouachita

By G. H. Osby

Last week, the Ouachita High School and Low Hope, the Harding College boys' team defeated the Ouachita High School boys, 51 to 29. This is the first time in Ouachita's history that it has captured a victory over the powerhouse Lipscomb College.

Although the Herd squad was not in the lead from the first place to account completely of its defeat, it was due to unfavorable weather for football, they were captured in spectacular fashion. Most of the Harding players were in attendance at Ouachita.

The game opened with Ouachita winning the kickoff and taking the lead on a 60-yard run, only to have it nullified by a penalty. Ouachita then went on a 50-yard drive and scored after a halfback pass.

The second half opened with Ouachita winning the kickoff and driving for another touchdown. At the end of the game, the score was 51 to 29.

BEN HARDING IS GUEST SPEAKER FOR EVENT

By Margaret Lubahn

Harding College, April 4 by the students, teachers, and friends of Harding College, in grace- ful memory of the service James A. Harding rendered the cause of Christian education. Benjamin Hard- ing was the friend of the school and the son of B. F. Harding.

He spoke at the 14th annual Harding College Telethon and the day was dedicated to the memory of the late Jim Harding, who was a student of James A. Harding and the great poet for the meetings.

Speech Section Attends Festival At Hendrix College

By Ann French

Two members of the pep band are to receive the "F" letters sometime during the spring semester. The pep band played at every Harding basketball game this season, under the direction of Mr. Kirk. The band is made up of six hardy and enthusiastic members chosen by the Young Life organization.

One of the members of the pep band is Mr. Jack Mona, Francis Burke, and Mrs. Jeanne Lawyer and Bill Stokes, and an elder in the church at Kan- ner. Hugh Rhodes, Mrs. Jewell, and Wadlow, and Virginia Rhodes were in attendance.

The theme of the festival was "The Gospel in Song." Although the weather was not favorable, the festival was well attended.

Lowe Davis Speaks On Sunday Broadcast

By Frances Williamson

Lowe Davis was the guest speaker on a Sunday broadcast by the Harding College Radio Station in Conway, Arkansas. The theme of the broadcast was "How Shall the Young Secure Their Gle'me."

In 1938 Harding took first place in the best directed play and second place in the musical contest. In 1937 three out of four possible spots were won. Mr. Kirk again stated that a school that is able to take advantage of its chances to show its accomplishment is the type of school that is able to take advantage of its chances to show its accomplishment.

Advice To Lovers By A Freshman

By Owen Mason

Freshman Campus 109...The title isn’t listed in the catalogue of courses open to students of Hardin, yet ninety per cent of our freshman are sufficiently engrossed in love to work in this field.

The only freshmen not engaged in this idea are eccentric coltists and the few old-fashioned seniors who have a “one and only” back home.

A question has been dropped from this course because of absence and failure to do home work this term. (This is a carry-over from our high school days.)

Several hours in this “all freshman should take” courses are given each day, 7:15 a. m. to 9:30 a.m., three hours.

These hours are devoted to the study of poetry, songs, and other instruments one’s mind to thoughts of history’s greatest lover.

Many times is also spent in scrutinizing, eye, vocal aperture, and nose, and the bottom of the mind is regained in this course.

The course is listed in the catalogue as “Learn to Sing.”
