There has been a problem finding someone to assemble the FM radio for the Student Center. Dr. Walker & Dr. Atteberry will do it, but they can't begin it until June.

Virgil Lawyer has requested signs for Senior Day in the Student Center, front gate, parking lot. The SA Bulletin Board must also be fixed. Sid Tate, Lynn Rhodes, and Margie Jacques are responsible for getting five people to work from 8:30 until noon that day. Sid is to arrange for three tours in the morning.

There will be two make-up sessions for the voice classification. There will be an announcement in chapel. About 10 per night have come.

The talent show is next Friday night, April 19.

A detailed treasurer's report was given; the SA has a balance now of $910.58.

The meeting was adjourned.
