The meeting was opened with a devotional led by Tom Kirk and Jim Wilson.

Jim Wilson, Tom Kirk, and Loverd Peacock have been appointed to study the Christian College Conference to be held at ACC this year and draw up a recommendation suitable for presentation to Dr. Benson.

Mary Ethel Bales, Rob Smith, and Glenda Yates are in charge of compiling the list of Who's Who nominees with grade points and activities. Council members turned lists of nominees in to this committee. The thirty-five students having the largest number of votes will be sent to the faculty for final vote.

Joel investigated the possibility of having a record made of various highlights of the year. He talked to the boy who was in charge of such a project at Freed-Hardeman. This project will be discussed more fully next meeting.

Bob Brewer and Rob Smith were not present; they had rehearsals for POCKET FULL OF RYE.

Joel read reports concerning SA decisions about buying cheerleader sweaters and the SNEA request for funds. Copies of each are to be sent to persons concerned.

Cabinet meetings are to be every other Monday at 1:00.

Gold presentation seals are to be placed on the FM speakers in the student center.

Methel was appointed to investigate the possibilities of pins or charms for SA Executive Council members, to be purchased at the expense of each member desiring one.

Roger gave a report on the subjects and problems of past year's lecture- ships. There followed a brainstorming session on possible themes for next year's lectureship.

The workshop for club officers is to be held Monday, September 30, in the American Studies Auditorium. Various classrooms will also be used. Each club will be allowed to send four delegates; every Council member who is able is expected to be present.

There followed a general discussion of projects by Joel. The lost-and-found service is being taken care of, as is also the music in the dining hall.

Tom reported that Professor Davis has requested that the voice classification project be postponed since he expects to be very busy during the next few months.

The SA will see that the Homecoming queen has a suitable crown.

Next meeting the possibility of an all-school Sing-Song will be discussed.

It was decided to have an SA-sponsored Dolly Drive.

The meeting was adjourned.
