The meeting was opened with Jim Wilson, Bob Brewer, and Tom Kirk leading the devotional.

Rob had to leave at 6:15 to go to another meeting, but was back within an hour.

Methel reported on two possible designs for SA pins or charms and the cost of the designs. Joel authorized her to select one design and take orders from those who want pins or charms.

Thursday night is the night that candidates for freshman offices make campaign speeches.

The reception given by the SA Executive Council for new faculty members is to be Thursday night at 7:00.

Joel reported that someone has asked that line cut cards be valid for both lines on TMS because the left line will not accommodate all holders of the cards on those days. The Council decided to watch the lines this week and make recommendations next meeting.

Mr. Verkler has asked Joel about helping the Negro girl from Searcy who is having financial difficulty at Southwestern College in Terrell, Texas. He recalled that last year the matter was taken care of by collections taken up in the dormitories. Tom felt that some clubs would like to have the project. He was asked to bring the matter before the Inter-Club Council and report back to the Council next week.

Bob reported that the pictures of new students have been mailed to be processed and that they will be posted as soon as they are returned.

Sheets with the results of the brainstorming session for possible lectureship themes were discussed. The best ideas were selected to be included in a report to Joe Hacker.

There followed another brainstorming session on possible subjects for student-made chapel speeches.

Joel played the record made at Freed-Hardeman which was a resume of the year's events and activities. The Council discussed such a project for this school year at Harding and decided to let each member think for a week about things which should be included on such a record while investigation can be made as to personnel on campus who could do the job. It is to be discussed further at the next meeting.

Jim Wilson then read the report which his committee had drawn up concerning the Christian College Conference at ACC this year. The committee felt that it would be worthwhile for delegates from Harding to attend this conference. After discussion, the Council voted unanimously to approach Dr. Benson with a request for permission to attend the conference.
Tom reported that several students had complained to him that the chocolate milk in the cafeteria seems to have been watered down. This matter is being checked.

Rob reported that Ron Butterfield has the tape recorder; he will see Ron about it as soon as possible.

Glenda asked that the SA request that the recreation room in Kendall Hall be opened for use. This will be considered next week.

Linda added that Mrs. Dykes suggested an all-school hootenanny.

Bob reminded the Council that someone needs to see about improving the paperback selection in the bookstore.

The meeting was adjourned.
