DANIEL STOCKSTILL, PH.D.

Dr. Daniel Stockstill has served in numerous roles and on numerous committees since joining the Harding faculty in 1990, and will retire from the university this summer as associate dean of the College of Bible & Ministry. Previously, Dr. Stockstill served as assistant dean of the college from 2006-08 and was promoted to the rank of professor in 2009.

Dr. Stockstill is a 1976 graduate of Harding, earning a bachelor's degree in biblical languages and Bible. He completed a Master of Theology with emphasis in textual studies and textual criticism from Harding Graduate School of Religion in 1981 and in 1999, he completed a doctorate in practical theology from Union Institute and University. In addition to teaching at Harding, Dr. Stockstill spent 13 years serving directly in ministry and participated in ministry and leadership training as part of Klesis, a mission effort in Australia. He also served as a national director for Lads to Leaders.

He sponsored the Harding University Christian drama troupe Theatron from 1994-2004 and has spoken at various youth ministry and teacher training seminars and workshops throughout his career. Dr. Stockstill was also a lead researcher on a 10-year longitudinal study of the millennial generation in the churches of Christ as well as being involved with Uplift, a summer Bible camp, for more than 15 years. He is a member of Harding University President's Council.

Dr. Stockstill is a member of the Downtown Church of Christ where he has served as a shepherd since 2002, and also serves as a Bible class teacher.

He and his wife, Cindee Mansur Stockstill, have two children and four grandchildren.

12 P.M. SERVICE

PHIL THOMPSON, D.MIN.

Dr. Phil Thompson has been a member of the College of Bible and Ministry faculty since 2001 and will retire this summer. Throughout his career at Harding, he has served as director for the Center for Preaching and as assistant director of the Kerusso Experience, a preaching and ministry camp. Dr. Thompson has taught courses in ethics, bioethics, preaching, and both Old and New Testaments. He has also been a keynote speaker for Harding University Lectureship as well as the Preacher's Conference. Dr. Thompson received Harding University's Teacher Achievement Award in 2010.

In addition to his teaching roles, Dr. Thompson has served as preaching minister for several churches across the United States, currently serving the Rose Bud church of Christ in Rose Bud, Arkansas, a position he has held since 2007. He has also participated in short-term missions in India, Bangladesh, Russia, Kazakhstan, Czech Republic, Germany, Anguilla and Jamaica.

Dr. Thompson holds a bachelor's degree in Bible from Harding University and a Master of Arts in bioethics from Trinity International University. In addition, he holds a Master of Theology, a Master of Arts in ethics and a Doctor of Ministry in homiletics all from Harding School of Theology.

He and his wife of 47 years, Liz Dyer Thompson, have three children and four grandchildren.

CLARA J. CARROLL, ED.D.

Dr. Clara Carroll has served the University since 1997, and completes her tenure as associate dean of the Cannon-Clary College of Education when she retires this summer. Previously, she has served as assistant dean and chair of graduate studies and the director of field experiences. Prior to joining the Harding faculty, Dr. Carroll was both an elementary and secondary teacher in school districts in Texas and Arkansas for 16 years.

Dr. Carroll has been named district-level Teacher of the Year, received the community Outstanding Teacher Award, and was honored with the Harding University Cooperating Teacher of the Year award as well as the Harding University Teacher Achievement Award.

She has written and managed more than $2 million dollars in grant funding related to enhancing educator preparation programs and field experiences, building teacher leadership, and supporting National Board Certification candidates.

Dr. Carroll is the chair of the Arkansas Department of Education National Board Certified Teacher Advisory Board, serves as the Arkansas outreach director for National Board for Professional Teaching Standards and has served as a board member for Arkansas Teachers for National Board Certification. She testified at the Arkansas Lieutenant Governor's Education Task Force, presented data and research to the Arkansas Legislative Joint Education Committee on National Board Certification, and is a leader in utilizing state and federal funds to support building teacher capacity and leadership.

Dr. Carroll holds a bachelor's degree in vocational home economics as well as a master's degree in secondary education, both from Harding. Her doctorate is in curriculum and instruction with an emphasis in elementary literacy from the University of Memphis. She has been a National Board Certified Teacher since 2003.

She and her husband of 43 years, Charlie Carroll, have two daughters and five grandchildren.

ALMA MATER

Near the foothills of the Ozarks,
Midst of hill and plain; Stands our glorious Alma Mater;
Harding is her name.

Chorus:
Sing the chorus, shout it loudly!
Echoing thro' the vale.
Hail to thee, beloved Harding!
Alma Mater, Hail!

Christian standard is her motto;
Christian life is stressed; And in ev'ry branch of learning,
Each one does his best.

Harding opens wide her portals,
Thus inviting all
Who would tread the path to knowledge, Heed then to her call.

“BE STILL, MY SOUL”

Be still, my soul; the Lord is on thy side.
Bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
Leave to thy God to order and provide;
In ev'ry change He faithful will remain.
Be still, my soul; thy best, thy heav'nly Friend
Thru thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul; thy God doth undertake
To guide the future as He has the past.
Thy hope, thy confidence let nothing shake;
All now mysterious shall be bright at last.
Be still, my soul; the waves and winds still know
His voice who ruled them while He dwelt below.

Be still, my soul; the hour is hast'ning on
When we shall be forever with the Lord;
When disappointment, grief and fear are gone;
Sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.
Be still, my soul; when change and tears are past,
All safe and blessed, we shall meet at last.

HARDING UNIVERSITY

Harding University has a rich history of quality education. Harding was chartered as a senior college in 1924 when two junior colleges, Arkansas Christian College and Harper College, merged their facilities and assets, adopted the new name of Harding College, and located on the campus of Arkansas Christian in Morrilton, Arkansas. The school was moved to Searcy in 1934, and the board of trustees approved a recommended change of Harding to university status in 1979.

Harding was named in memory of James A. Harding, a pioneer Christian educator who founded Nashville Bible School (now Lipscomb University) in Tennessee. He challenged his co-workers with an enthusiasm for Christian education that remains a significant tradition at Harding University.

At the charter, J.N. Armstrong, who had served five years as Harper's president, became president of Harding College, holding the office from 1924-36.

In 1936, George S. Benson returned from mission work in China to assume the presidency of his alma mater. Benson directed the college from a deep indebtedness into a state of financial stability, national recognition and academic accreditation. He retired in 1965 after 29 years of tireless service.

Dr. Clifton L. Ganus Jr., a 1943 graduate, served as president from 1965 to 1987. A former history department chair and vice president of the college, Ganus kept alive his predecessors' drive for excellence by leading a plan of campus improvement and expansion. At his retirement, Ganus became Harding's first chancellor and then served as chancellor emeritus from 2013 until his death in September 2019.

Dr. David Burks became the fourth president in 1987. A 1965 graduate, he has been a member of the faculty since 1967 and served as dean of the College of Business Administration. Under his leadership, the University experienced record growth in enrollment and giving and, more importantly, placed significant emphasis on Christian servanthood.

Dr. Bruce McLarty, a 1978 graduate and the University's fifth president, served as president from 2013 to 2020. Prior to this role, McLarty was the first vice president of spiritual life for the University. As the result of his doctoral work, the University adopted his five-chapter curriculum, "Embracing the Mission," which focuses on maintaining the faith-based principles Harding was built upon.

Chancellor David Burks resumed the role of president in December 2020 and serves until Harding's sixth president, Dr. Michael D. Williams, assumes the role on June 1, 2022. Like his previous administration, Dr. Burks' goal is the integration of faith, learning and living. With that focus in mind, the University seeks to develop the whole person through a spiritual emphasis in academics, athletics, Bible class and chapel. Thus, Harding's 4,970 students, representing 49 states and more than 50 countries and territories, are empowered for ministry, church leadership and a lifetime of service.
