The Perseverance Of The Preacher Boys Should Be An Inspiration For Us

Very few people realize the hardships that young preachers endure in filling an empty pulpit once each Sunday in the Good Word. The general opinion is that the young preacher is often too busy with the demands of his position to fill the pulpit, but here are a few who make this impossible.

The Sunday morning comes and the preacher begins to prepare his sermon. He is in his study, and so that the information of the stuff

Koinonia Club Has Annual Banquet At Marion In Little Rock

The annual Koinonia Club banquet was held at the Marolin Hotel, Little Rock, Saturday night. Presiding was Mrs. C. R. Means, president of the club.

Unusualness and simplicity were present in the decorations of the dining room. A motif of white and red, the colors of the club, was carried throughout in detail. Wigs were formed into the usual wreaths and men sported them. The decorations were repeated in the programs, speeches being made as follows:

Bill Landrum: The Swares, Bessie Drake, the Chief, J. E. Bartley; the War Doctor, J. M. Proctor; Diana, the princess, and the maid and groom, the various delectable dishes were served.

All decorations were done by hand work and the cards and napkins bore the club motif. During the program, telegrams were read by Harold McCauley, of Jefferson City, Mo.; Doug Milner, of Dallas, Texas; Isom Crawford, of Dallas, Texas; Paul Shirma, Evans; and Eula Smith, of Oletha, Tenn.; Clifton Cochran, of Dallas, Texas.

Upon arriving at the club, the center of place cards, and blue roses and blue corn flowers were reflected in a mirror-like table. A clover, with clover, with a clover, was further carried out in the center of the tables. Place cards were arranged by Mrs. Florence Jewel and Mr. John Jackson. Simplicity was the keynote of the decorations, as the menu was carried out, with the club colors, red, white, and blue.

Faculty Members Have Weekly Tea

Faculty members were entertained with a high in the attractively decorated room on the third floor of the Physical Laboratory. The Georgia Washington team was carried out in all the decorations. A crystal dish was set upon a silver tray.

W. H. C. Club Holds Annual Country Feed At Hickory Ridge

Members of the W. H. C. Club held the 13th annual feed at 7:15 p.m. Saturday at the Hickory Ridge home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sears. The outing was made possible by the efforts of Mrs. Verle Craver, secretary.

The program was as follows:

- A selection of songs
- A selection of poems
- A selection of skits
- A selection of games

The program was brought to a close by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Sears. The outing was made possible by the efforts of Mrs. Verle Craver, secretary.

Eaton Adelphians Entertain In College Dining Hall Saturday

Unusualness and simplicity were the keynote of the decorations of the dining hall. The arrangement of the tables was blue and red, the colors of the club. The decorations were repeated in the programs, speeches being made as follows:

Bill Landrum: The Swares, Bessie Drake, the Chief, J. E. Bartley; the War Doctor, J. M. Proctor; Diana, the princess, and the maid and groom, the various delectable dishes were served.

A three-drawer crystal cabinet reflected the beauty of this created southern hospitality.

The center piece of gold and blue roses and blue corn flowers were reflected in a mirror-like table. A clover, with clover, was further carried out in the center of the tables. Place cards were arranged by Mrs. Florence Jewel and Mr. John Jackson. Simplicity was the keynote of the decorations, as the menu was carried out, with the club colors, red, white, and blue.

Seniors Capture Seven Firsts In Aquatics Meet

Buck Harris And Pryor Take Individual Scoring Honors

The seniors, led by Buck Harris, who captured four firsts for individual honors, won the intramural swimming contest for boys with a total of 45 points. Harris made 34% of his league-leading throws.

The juniors were second with 31; the frosh third with 20; and the sophomores fourth with 18 points.

In addition to the firsts captured by Harris, the seniors won both relay events. Still, they came through with another first which enabled the seniors to finish with seven firsts out of eight possible.

Harris, who is well known in those parts for his aquatic accomplishments, was victor in the 105-yard freestyle, the 40-yard freestyle, the 100-yard butterfly, and the diving contest. He also reeled on both of the winning teams. The diving contest, composed of three required dives from two additional, was an exciting event won by Harris with a total of 43 out of a possible 80. Every one of those points was given a score of 10. Harris was credited with 8 on his first dive. The old record was set by B. E. Pryor, junior who took first three events, and a third for team honors, making 25 8-4 points. The 105-yard freestyle—Harris; Pryor, junior; Hudson, freshman; and Lay, sophomore 23. The 40-yard freestyle—Hassard, junior; Pryor, junior; and Hudson, freshman. Time: 1:13.5. The 100-yard butterfly—Harris; sophomore; and Pryor, junior. Time: 13 seconds. The 100-yard backstroke—Harrisons; junior; and Bailey, freshman. Time: 1:17.5. The 40-yard medley relay—senior Clift, sophomore; junior Sigler, junior; and freshman Clift, junior; and Bailey, freshman. Time: 1:19.5.

Searey Defeats Wynne In Last Home Game

In the final and home-coming game of the season, the junior Searey didn't have much trouble in edging the sophomore Wynne 16 to 12.

Before the game Miss Harris, a sophomore was crowned queen of home by Captain Guy Davie, the junior editor of the campus literary magazine Louis. Publisher, Virginia Whitley, the junior cheerleader and Miss Martha Halter, the Miss of Home. The senior line-up served as escort for the court.

A. T. Searey's beauty forward was outstanding during the night, causing the junior field goal game which gave the team a 12 to 6 advantage at the half. Guy Davie scored several points and played his usual "hang up" game. For Wynne, Edwardson, senior center won the whole play for the Vincentaires. He proved to be the only player under the goal and co covered with a total of 17 tables.

The Rackers won the game 16 to 12.

All of those that saw the swimming meet will agree that they got one of the biggest surprises that they have ever had in a few days. They saw some of the best swimming that they have ever seen anywhere in the country. The most wonderful aspects of this meet was that they had such a hard time. The men were taking their support. So it looks like you will be very well rewarded for your time opening up to see the flights.

PARDON US, VERLE

In the picking of the girls' last first which enabled the junior Verle was omitted from the list handed on. Though she was picked on it. So we take this opportunity to announce that Verle was a member of the all-stater 3-M team, being selected as a guard.

FACTS AND FLASHES

There will be but four more events on the intramural program for the present year. They are: Horsey and Welling, Wrestling, and Tennis. At the end of this intramural program there will be the annual track and field day, each of which will be looking forward to. After the track and field day is over there will be about five weeks of softball, and at the end of those there will be a team selected from those that come out. Some that have not come out, the Almanac, instead of the baseball note that we have had in the past. Girls' horse shoe pitching in doubles, Arch Street for up and surprises for all FLASH!! you make the last line of the story. Those that doubles in badminton with your FOUNTAIN DEFEATS Wynne in coming games 50 to 10.

The senior line-up served as escort for the court.
