SA COUNCIL MEETING

March 17, 1964

The meeting was opened with a devotional.

Bob Brewer was absent.

Jimmy gave a report on the meeting with the Administrative Committee, which was composed of Dr. Benson, Dr. Ganus, Dr. Pryor, and Lott Tucker. The decision of this committee is to be submitted to either Jimmy or to Joel in the form of a letter.

Ballots for the Stapleton memorial will be passed out in short chapel Wednesday. They were handed out to the Council and sorted into piles of fourteen for easier distribution.

Circle K has declined to do anything about the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library.

The question of amendments to the constitution was discussed. The Council voted unanimously to submit to Dr. Benson the proposed amendment that graduate student representatives not be elected. The question of having the president-elect be vice president the year prior to his term of office was discussed for some time and then postponed until a later meeting. The question of seniors' voting in the elections of officers for the following year is also to be discussed later.

The problem of an excessive number of people who are habitually late to chapel was discussed. Various solutions were suggested but no action was taken. The matter is to be referred to a committee for study, and Dean Lawyer and the personnel office staff are to be consulted.

Regarding special permission for Bible majors and people who have special interest in missions to attend at least one workshop or lecture during the year: the Council felt that any request for such should be addressed to the administration through the Bible Department.

The Council discussed the letter from the woman student who was unhappy because she was locked in the dormitory on Sunday night. In view of the facts that Sunday night church attendance is required, that the dormitory must therefore be locked since there is no one to attend desk during services, and that ample warning is given before the doors are locked, the Council decided to take no action on the letter.

Jimmy requested that anyone who has constructive suggestions with regard to revision of the student handbook tell him.

Linda asked if a request could not be presented that items such as cereal could be carried from the dining hall. This will be discussed at a later meeting.

Jim reported an anonymous comment that the SA bulletin board looks very good. Other members concurred; and Mina Stanford, who is in charge of it, was commended.
Jim also noted that there does not seem to be much improvement in the prayer situation in the dining hall. Someone else felt that there has been, however.

The lily pool devotionals are to be improved.

There followed a continuation of the discussion of academic affairs; this discussion is to be continued in a short meeting next week which is to be devoted entirely to this subject.

The meeting was adjourned.
