WARS OF YESTERDAY AND TODAY

As German forces advance towards Paris, we can't help but recall how differently the United States considers this now and in the last war. Today we hear up-to-the-minute reports and communiqués about the front line. Twenty-five years ago we were reading about the Eastern Front and the Western Desert. Today we are a nation of engineers, designing better ways to cut the water of the Elbe. In 1917 news came daily with a touch of propaganda added to each message. I, the United States, will lead the world to victory. Today the conflict with somewhat warped viewpoints.

Today we are a different nation. Today we are a country of broad-minded thinking. Today we are reading of the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Today we are a nation of engineers, designing better ways to cut the water of the Elbe. In 1917 news came daily with a touch of propaganda added to each message. I, the United States, will lead the world to victory. Today the conflict with somewhat warped viewpoints.
