Mr. Charles Gentry
P.O. Box 244
Smithville, Tennessee

Dear Charles:

It was certainly good to hear from you. I have been looking forward to seeing you. My impressions of you have been the very best because of the wonderful way you conducted yourself while working in Dayton.

We have already been making plans for the meeting at Smithville. It will be announced and I know of several already making their plans to attend.

Our song leader is Tom Harris whom I think you know. He has consented to direct the singing one night during the meeting. If you wish you may direct us as to which night it would be best for Tom to lead the singing. I will be coming with him that night. I also hope to get over one or two nights besides that one.

My best regards to you and your work in Smithville.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

P.S. I see your father often and have come to think a great deal of him.
