LEASURE, SANDS ARE ORATORICAL CONTEST WINNERS

"Relighting The Flame" and "An Open Letter To An Unpopular Girl" were Best Talk and Best Debate at the annual oratorical contest sponsored by the Press Club, according to an announcement by S. F. Timmerman, editor of the Banner. The winning division was a light sketch on the possibility of an unpopular girl's view from a boy's viewpoint. It was written in the form of a novel let- ter, and dealt primarily with the rebuilding of a personality. "Relighting The Flame" was the winning entry in the women's division. A novel let- ter, it consisted of a presentation of the responsibilities of the modern woman in the crisis confronting the world.

Other finalists in the contest were Janet Geffter, who spoke on "A Thanksgiving," and David Swaggerty, who discussed "Future Democracy." A novelty number, "Our Home Economics," was announced as an award.

Coached by William Laas, the college orchestra gave a concert in the auditorium Tuesday night. As the curtain was raised, the strains of "Old Edna America" by Berlin were played. Following the concert, the orchestra entertained with "Shadow of Oz," "The Human Comedy," "Dance No. 5," "Wagner's Bridal Chorus," "Rhapsody," "Poet and Peasant Overture," and "Silent Wall Overture," and "Pony Express." Before the final applause there were two encore numbers, that of Wagner and Schumann. Bob Martin singing "Serenade" by Dallmeyer, and for an encore number, "Drink Yo- Me Only With Thine Eyes." The viola solo by Eleanor Dover was entitled "Chiaroscuro." By Bilder. Mr. Laas is making plans to have his orchestra on at least one other try. There will also be other presenters in the auditorium soon.

New Courses To Be Offered In Spring Quarter

Seven new courses have been introduced into the curriculum for the spring quarter. These new courses cover four different fields: Politics and educational, English, home economics, and social sciences.

"Christianity in the Modern World" and "Robertson's Christian Thought" are two new Bible courses to be taught by Prof. Robert D. Brown. Dr. George B. Benson is introducing a new course in "The History of Christian Thought."

Two new courses in English are also being taught this term. Prof. Neil D. Cane is teaching a class in "American Writing," and "Shakespeare's England" is taught by Mrs. C. B. Stoltzenberg.

The home economics department is giving a course in "Theological Environment," and "Miesbien House Hopeful," as announced.

A course in social science which has been offered in several years is "History of the United States," being taught by Professor E. L. Perez.

Missionary Forum Elects Officers, Plans Program

Closing another quarter, the Missionary Forum which meets monthly in the administration building, selected S. F. Timmerman to serve as chairman of the Forum. Dean Allen will be the assistant chairman. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 8.

After election of leaders, the Forum was turned into a panel discussion of church publicity work. Timmerman led the discussion by introducing the church as a glorious institution whose purpose was to publicize the gospel.

Various phases of this type of work were treated briefly by Travis Griffin Copeland, Dennis Allen, Maryette Sanders, and Rita McCor- dill, and "Wagner's Bridal Chorus," "Rhapsody," "Poet and Peasant Overture," and "Silent Wall Overture," and "Pony Express." Before the final applause there were two encore numbers, that of Wagner and Schumann. Bob Martin singing "Serenade" by Dallmeyer, and for an encore number, "Drink Yo- Me Only With Thine Eyes." There will also be other presenters in the auditorium soon.

Plans are being fared for a purely entertaining and purposeful forum for the spring quarter of this year, and it is hoped that many of the students who have not attended will do so.

The program for Thursday night, March 2, will consist of a concert by the college orchestra followed by a "semi-final" debate, and after having the winners' names engraved on it, will be placed in the trophy case in the library.

After a second debate of nearly eight years ago, after playing one team from the Arkansas State Tournament at Little Rock, the 41 debate squad went to Minneapolis later in the spring quarter to have the winners' names engraved on the trophy case in the library.

Mixed Chorus Presents Program At Seear High

WELCOME TO HARDING'S FIRST VOCATIONAL CLINIC

Seear Kiwanians And State Department To Cooperate

State Vocational Guidance Coun- cillors sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Searcy, Harding College, and the State Department of Education, will present a full-day program to the high school graduates and college students of White County here on Friday, March 22.

The purpose of this vocational guidance program is to open up to students the advantages and dis- advantages of various vocations, and the best means of getting into it.

According to an announcement by Dean L. C. Sears, more special- ized work will be present. Councillors will be new to students information on business trends, oppor- tunities and training necessary to the student.

Councillors are Dean Bum, president of the Kiwanis Club of Searcy, and W. Leaton Mason, secret- ary of the Searcy Public Library.

The main speakers on the pro- gram will be Dr. W. S. Marzotto, in- gurates in the vocational field. They are: Mrs. W. W. Marzotto, Chief of Vocational Guidance, Polk De- partment of Welfare, Department D.C., and Dr. Lymon Tibbits, Spec- tial Instructor in Vocational Cul- ture, North Carolina State University, Nashville, N. C.

The first general session will be held in the college auditorium at 10 a.m. what will conclude with the monthly glee club, under the supervision of Prof. L. C. Moore, opening the session.

Opening the session, Prof. L. C. Moore will address the students on the topic of "Finding Your Vocation." (Continued on page 3)

Dear Angie

How are you? I hope that you have been doing well. I am writing to you because I want to discuss some important matters with you.

Firstly, I am happy to report that my studies have been progressing well. I have been able to overcome some challenges that I faced in the past. However, I am still facing some difficulties in certain areas, and I would appreciate your guidance and support in overcoming these challenges.

Secondly, I am interested in discussing some personal matters with you. I would like to share some thoughts and feelings with you, and I hope that you will be able to understand and provide me with the necessary support.

I am looking forward to hearing from you soon. I hope that we can continue our correspondence and deepen our friendship.

Best regards,
Angie

PS: I am sending you a small gift as a token of my appreciation for your support and guidance.

Sincerely,
Angie

GREENWAY AND FOGG ARE YEAR'S HIGH POINT ATHLETES

The recent men's intramural swimming meet was the high point of the season for many student swim teams. In addition to the swimming meets, the tennis and track meetings were also important events in the college calendar. The basketball tournament was another highlight of the year, and the students worked hard for their team. The members of the winning team were considered for their record-breaking performances.

Acolin Girls' Team, Coached by Harris' Wins District

Acolin, Arkansas, has produced a girls' basketball team which is a favorite to win the District tournament. Coached by Bill Landrum, they ended a successful season by winning the District 11 basketball tournament. The Acolin girls had little trouble in overcoming all their opponents. This is the first time in the school's history that the team has won the District tournament.

Harris' team breezed through the tournament, scoring 165 points in opposition of 41. One of their leading scorers, Thelma Lee Allison, scored 12 points in the girls' team. The team members were all in high spirits.

Acolin is now eligible for the State tournament to be held soon. Harris is a Harding graduate of last year. He was editor of the 'Ewon,' two years active in the interfraternity and intramural sports. He is superintendent and coach of the Acolin school system.

McReynolds And Ryan Winners in Horseshoes

Upsetting the favored team of Charles Ozer and Emmett Smith, Leonard McReynolds and Pete Ryan hoped on stage after stage to win the doubles horseshoes tournament.

In the first round, Al Berryhill and Wayne Wales faced off against the team of Hale and Macie Miller. Ozer and Smith were over Lynn Bolling and Leland Waters by a forfeit. Walter Lacklins and Cliff. McReynolds received a bye, and Bill Harris and Oscar Spiker won a forfeit over Bill Dykes and Donald Dobbin.

McReynolds and Ryan began their winning streak by mostly defeating Johnny Greenway and Dan Spencer in the first round.

WINNING THE INSIDE TRACK, first prize in horseshoes, was awarded to McReynolds and Ryan pulled away to a good start in their game with Ozer and Lacklins. They got about 15 points ahead, but were unable to hold the lead and the score tied at 10-10. However, McReynolds got his aim back again and put Ryan on ringer after ringer to win 21-16.

Ryan gave his partner able assistance in the second game to win 21-11.

Playing the championship game, McReynolds and Ryan never gave their opponents a chance. They got off to a flying start, and between Ozer and Smith realized the score was 11-1 against them. They got about 10 points ahead, but were unable to hold the lead and the score tied at 10-10. However, McReynolds got his aim back again and put Ryan on ringer after ringer to win 21-16.

Ryan gave his partner able assistance in the second game to win 21-11.
