Program Information

HOUSING

You may write to J. C. Smith, Director of Lectureship Housing, Harding College, Searcy, Ark., for accommodations. Free housing has been traditional at Harding's lectures, but as the lectures grow, only those who get their reservations in early can be sure of free accommodations among members of the church in the city. Free housing is arranged on a first-come first-served basis. Six good motels and a good hotel are in the area.

SPECIAL MEETINGS

Several special dinners and luncheons are scheduled in connection with the Lectureship. Those included within this program were arranged before printing. Others will be announced at Lectureship assemblies. We especially invite all elders and preachers to attend the annual elder's and preachers' dinner this year. Jim Bill McIntreer is the speaker.

ESTATE PLANNING GUIDANCE ON WEDNESDAY

Be sure to avail yourself of the Estate Planning and Tax Information Services. 9:30 a.m., Panel on Estate Planning. 12:15 p.m., Luncheon for those interested in Estate Planning. Tax Attorney and Estate Planning Specialist Available by Appointment.

EVENING LECTURES

Each evening there will be two speakers. One will be speaking in the College Auditorium while the other is speaking in the College Church Auditorium. The College Church is located at 712 E. Race Ave., two short blocks north and one block west of the main campus gate.

You will notice that each speech for Monday evening is repeated at the other location on Tuesday evening. The same procedure is followed on Wednesday with each lecture of that evening being given at the opposite location on Thursday evening.

LECTURESHP PARKING

There is ample parking space behind and on the west side of the College Church building in the two church parking lots. In addition to the large parking lot adjacent to the College Auditorium, there is a larger new lot across the railroad track from the regular parking entrance.
