Mr. Brad Brumley
Freed-Hardeman College
Henderson, Tennessee

Dear Brad:

The Elders here have ask me to extend an invitation to you and your education students to come and spend the night with us in Cookeville. The Willow Ave. congregation and the Collegeseide congregation is also planning to offer homes in which your group may spend the night. Of course Sue and I are looking forward to having you in our home.

The two congregations just mentioned will also attend our Bible School teachers meeting on Thursday night, March 31, at 7:30 P.M. I assume that you will be able to arrive in Cookeville by that time.

We are certainly hopeful that your one visit with our teachers will be the earnest of brighter things to come. Just remember as you prepare that up to the present the Bible Schools have been completely neglected. This area has been blessed with the "greats" of the past in the pulpit and consequently have forgotten that there is anything else with which the Church needs to be concerned.

We would like to have a list of the boys and girls sent as you know who will come. If they are planning to travel as "packing partners" please indicate who must stay with whom.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chaik
