4-7-2000

After Midnight, Before Dawn (program)

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.harding.edu/theatre-history

Recommended Citation

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in Theatre Programs and Posters by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.
Director's Note

Compton's play, After Midsite, Before Dawn, provides, I believe, a fantastic picture of the ways in which Satan comes at us. It is my prayer that as you watch our production, your faith will be challenged, that your heart will be made heavy with conviction, and that you will be encouraged in your walk with the Lord.

~Michael

After Midsite, Before Dawn was directed by Michael Woodall in order to fulfill the requirements of COMT 313, Play Production Practicum.

"Art is a cry of distress from those who live out within themselves the destiny of humanity, who are not content with it but measure themselves against it, who do not obtusely serve the engine to which the label "unseen forces" is applied, but throw themselves into the moving gears to understand how it works. They are those who do not turn their eyes away to protect themselves from emotions but open them wide to oppose what must be attacked. They do, however, often close their eyes to perceive what the senses do not convey, to look inside of what seems to be happening on the surface. Inside them turns the movement of the world; only an echo of it leaks out - the work of art."

~Arnold Schoenberg

The Hendrix University Theater Department Presents

After Midnight, Before Dawn

By David Campton
Directed by Michael Woodall

April 7th and 8th, 2000
Little Theater

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.
After Midnight, Before Dawn

by
David Campton
Directed by Michael Woodall
April 7 & 8, 2000

The Cast

Girl: Cristina Boothe *α
Boy: Brian Adams
Neat Woman: Bethany Banister *α
Old Woman: Cory Edwards
Calm Woman: Hannah Sawyer
Man: Dustin Bartee
Understudy: Amber Wade *α

Technical Staff

Stage Manager: Amber Wade *α
Lighting: Marcus Neely *α
Makeup: Aaron Brooks *α
Combat Coordinator: Jonathan Root *α
Graphic Design: Jamie Flavati
Photographer: Mindy Breitweiser
Set and Costume: Michael Woodall and the cast.

* denotes Campus Players
α denotes Alpha Psi Omega

Special Thanks
Robin Miller *α
Morris Ellis *α
Brenda Seawel
Tevin Stamatus
Kara Forrest
Stefanie Seiders
After Midnite, Before Dawn
by
David Campton
Directed by Michael Woodall
April 7 & 8, 2000

Technical Staff
Stage Manager: Amber Wade *a
Lighting: Marcus Neely *a
Makeup: Aaron Brooks *a
Combat Coordinator: Jonathan Root *a
Graphic Design: Jamie Haavati
Photographer: Mindy Breitweiser
Set and Costume: Michael Woodall and the cast.

* denotes Campus Players
α denotes Alpha Pi Omega

The Cast
Girl: Cristina Boothe *a
Boy: Brian Adams
Neat Woman: Bethany Banister *a
Old Woman: Cory Edwards *
Calm Woman: Hannah Sawyer *
Man: Dustin Barthe *
Understudy: Amber Wade *a

Special Thanks
Robin Miller *a
Brenda Seawell
Tevin Stamatus
Kara Forrest
Stefanie Seiders
Director's Note

Compton’s play, After Midnight, Before Dawn, provides, I believe, a fantastic picture of the ways in which Satan comes at us. It is my prayer that as you watch our production, your faith will be challenged, that your heart will be made heavy with conviction, and that you will be encouraged in your walk with the Lord.

-Michael

After Midnight, Before Dawn was directed by Michael Woodall in order to fulfill the requirements of COMT 313, Play Production Practicum.

"Art is a cry of distress from those who live out within themselves the destiny of humanity, who are not content with it but measure themselves against it, who do not obtusely serve the engine to which the label "unseen forces" is applied, but throw themselves into the moving gears to understand how it works. They are those who do not turn their eyes away to protect themselves from emotions but open them wide to oppose what must be attacked. They do, however, often close their eyes to perceive what the senses do not convey, to look inside of what seems to be happening on the surface. Inside them turns the movement of the world; only an echo of it leaks out – the work of art."

- Arnold Schoenberg

The Harding University Theater Department Presents

After Midnight, Before Dawn

By David Campton
Directed by Michael Woodall

April 7th and 8th, 2000
Little Theater

Produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.