12-2-1941

The Bison, December 2, 1941

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.harding.edu/thebison

Recommended Citation
The Bison, December 2, 1941. (1941). Retrieved from https://scholarworks.harding.edu/thebison/221

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Archives and Special Collections at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Bison by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.
Benson Tells Of Future Plans For Harding

Goals Include Dormitory, Gymnasium, Joining
Accrediting Association

Plans for the future were recently announced when Pres. Benson announced, "Our goal for the next five years will include entrance into the North Central Association, a new gymnasium, library and auditorium, and boys' dormitory."

By gaining membership in the North Central Association, our credits will be recognized without questioning at universities," Benson stated. He pointed out that at the same time, funds of five thousand dollars is necessary for entrance, and added that it is possible that this goal be accomplished in less than five years.

According to Dr. Benson, the auditorium and library will be located where the present hall is, and the boys' dormitory will be south of the administration building.

"If such can be accomplished," Benson rather stated, "We will have more requests for enrollment than we can handle, which will make it necessary for us to limit enrollment."

In speaking further he declared that the higher type of student would more effectively demonstrate accomplishments, adding influence and prestige to the school's academic standing.

Housekeeping Award Made In Grey Gables

Marie Massey and Mabel Mather of Grey Gables received the good housekeeping banners this month.

Each student who lives for Grey Gables are made in the same manner as for Grey Gables, seven rooms and three kitchens are checked every Thursday. Thursdays, these checkings for a month by Miss Metherlin will be made with the help of the maids, Mrs. Harvey Dylars, and the deaness and best host room in the building receives the banner.

MAIN SPEAKER

Jesse P. Sewell
Speaks During Holiday Meeting
Former President Of ACC
Gives Three Lectures;
Others Are On Program

Speakers other than A. C. Pullias for the Thanksgiving lectures were Jesse P. Sewell, San Antonio, Texas, Riley Henry, Rusk, and John G. Rees, Creeds, Tex., and Milton Pfeiffer, Saratoga.

Sewell was president of Abilene Christian College for twelve years before going to San Antonio to preach for a congregation there. He was introduced by J. N. Armstrong, head of the bible department and president of the board of directors.

In his first lecture Sewell said, "Congregations are failing today because of the lack of progressive action on their part. The main reason we fail today is that we do not believe in Christ. We are coming out of an age of compromise. Nations, schools, and churches have been compromising in the last fifty years. As a result of this they are tending down.

In his second address Sewell elaborated upon how there are three sources of power: God, the Eternal Son, and the eternal spirit. The subject of his text was "Christian Education." He said, "The educator finds his most difficult task is to keep his material Christian. We are never free from the pull and push of our environment, and as long as we are Christian, colleges will ever be in danger of becoming worldly."

On Monday, November 16th, the last evening of the week, Sewell was the speaker, adding as his text the case of Ananias and Sapphira in the fifth chapter of Acts to prove that in spite of everything people today kept back part of the price.

Hee come in the place of Lewis M. Mills who was called from among his mother's death.

Speaking on the subject "Special Providence of God," John G. O'Leary stressed the fact that God helps everyone—saint and sinner, he seeks rain on the just and the unjust but he helps his people in a way that he does not help everyone else. He was the first speaker in chapel Wednesday morning.

Program For Student Piano Recital
Tonight At 8 In College Auditorium

Soprano

Rachael A. Newton

Sweezey and Church will offer a variety of music during the program. Miss Newton, a senior, will give a recitation of "The Moonlight Serenade," a song written by Jerome Kern. Miss Church, a junior, will also sing a song while Mr. Schmalz plays the piano.

Finally, Mr. Schmalz will play a solo on the piano, and then the program will end with a selection of "The Star-Spangled Banner."
The Ash Pit Behind the Swimming Pool...

So goes the tale of the ash pit behind the swimming pool. In its fiery cage, high above, it is an inch or two thick. It has driven the boys out of the pool. It will be thrown in the fiery ash pit behind the swimming pool. You would not like to be discarded and cast into the ash pit, and consequently, they didn't get there.

One student made a practice of saving the ashes. He is now singing baritone in the choir of the University of Texas. He is also the basket-maker of the Phils.

Mrs. Pullias, Nashville, Tenn., was recently featured on a TV show. She plays the violin at Harding College. She is also the basket-maker of the Phils.

The memory of Thanksgiving still surges in our hearts and minds as we are trying to realize the great quantities of food laid out in the dining hall, and for that reason, we hereby give our "tummy felt thanks" to the kitchen workers and laundresses.

We just keep asking questions and injuries—then God who does not give is a blessing so immeasurable that we cannot be anything but grateful and thankful. Indeed, God is no farther removed from the heart. There must, however, be a real living faith. To the Father at any time through Jesus Christ our Lord.

We are going to insist that we hear the quartet more than we did last year. Angus, because we heard them here last year only about three times. Of course, the quartet and change of members before the year was over. We do not suppose they will learn to hear many songs. But this year we hope we'll have better luck, and we believe they will.

A postage stamp affords much rich material for younger students at college. It will not only come to their notice but will also help to get them at conclusions. We hereby give the "tummy felt thanks" to the kitchen workers and laundresses.

One student is always present at the meetings of the Arkansas Association. She plays the violin at Harding College. She is also the basket-maker of the Phils.

We write a two-bit theme. Of the two, the better is...

We rack our poor brains terribly for thoughts and things to be.

We do not write and write and write. By the way, when will the campus newspaper be published?

But we write and write and write. We want the money. We want the praise.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.

If we could die in the world, it looks as if we could die in the world.
Bensons Show
Home; Serve
Tea For Alumni

Alumni were entertained with a tea in the home of President and Mrs. George S. Benson Thursday afternoon. This tea was prepared by students in the home economics classes under the supervision of Mrs. S. A. Bell.

The living room was decorated with orchid chrysanthemums and red berries. Yellow chrysanthemums and green candles were used in the dining room. A harvest scene of turkeys and fruit was arranged on the buffet.

Mrs. Bell presided at the table and served tea. Girls who helped in serving were Raylene Thornton, Dorcas Dean Westbrook, Imogene Nichols, Carmen Price, Hollie Game, Mary Etta Langston, and Ernest McFadden.

Meat and cranberry sauce, turkey sandwiches, toast and fruit sandwiches, stuffed dates, salted nuts, bubble mints, tall house cookies and chocolate and white cake were arranged on the table. Guests had the choice of tea or coffee. Girls who helped in serving were Raylene Thornton, Dorcas Dean Westbrook, Imogene Nichols, Carmen Price, Hollie Game, Mary Etta Langston, and Ernest McFadden.

Refreshments were bologna and cheese sandwiches and cake. The cake had the club name written on it. It was sent by a former member, Martha Williams Adair.

Las Companeras

The Las Companeras Club entertained alumni members in Wanda Luttrell's room Thursday afternoon.

After a brief discussion of the present work of the club and future plans, refreshments were served, consisting of doughnuts and coffee, orange and grape.

Guests were Virginia McDaniel, Mrs. Robert Martin, Claudia Rosenbaum, and Elaine Camp.

Tofebs Dine At Rendezvous With Their Dates

Members of the Tofeb Club and their dates entertained Saturday night with a dinner in the Rendezvous Cafe followed by a moving picture.

The theme included a fruit salad for the first course, baked chicken, mashed potatoes, English pea, cranberry sauce, hot rolls and butter, ice cream and coffee. Members and their dates included Dorothy Welsh, Gaylon Hotchkiss; Marlene Dennington, Neal Watson; Elaine Reese, D. C. Lawrence; Sallie Whiteside, John Sands; and Marie Jamison.

IS SHE AMONG "Sweetest Girls"

Some fellows more rapidly. The other night, Paul Herndon, a new junior starting in the winter term, was introduced to the men's glee club. In the introduction it was mentioned he was going to marry the first of next month. Ernest Salters inquired, "Has he picked one out yet?"
Girls Team Up In Horseshoes

Horseshoes is the game now being played by the girls. The first matches are to be played today; second, Thursday afternoon, letting the contest close by Saturday night. Those who are listed as playing in pairs are below. They put in pairs by Dean Stnith, Watson and Jean Berryhill, Louise Nichcher and Edith Hulett. Erin Mae Dennington and Hazel Jean Bingham, and Eloise Reese and Mary Hare and Esther Brown to horseshoes. Those who are listed as playing in the intramural awards. The next 25 pert of the first matches have been

Bison Sports

BY CLIFTON GANUS

It looked good to see the old players flash across Harding's little gym floor again. From the looks of the final score they haven't lost their old fire, nor their ability. They enthused the college crowd so much that the undergrads never had a chance, from the beginning to the finish.

Height was also another advantage that the alumni had over the college players. Lucky Ordis Copeland and "Pulldit" Roe provided most of the scoring for the alumni. Each made almost, or more points than the combined college team.

Johnny Goodman wasn't hot the first that he showed last year when he was playing against the alumni. He still gets down there fast and recovers that ball off the half court.

It was topped, and you have to give the fellows credit for trying against the more experienced players. Better luck next year.

Sport news is scarce at this time of the season, possibly the dorm before the storm. Coach Berryhill announces that the basketball free throw will begin the next period. Each player takes 10 shots. The goals will be counted and the first 25 per cent will receive six points toward the intramural awards. The next 25 per cent will receive four points, and so on. Then comes basketball, the favorite of the school. Teams will be chosen from the classes.

On paper the freshmen class seems to have the advantage over the other classes, but you can never tell what is bound to happen during the season. The senior and junior classes will be lucky to get five men on the court, much less put out a good team. They will be out there fighting as long as they stand up.

Let's take a peek into another game of "Pulldit" gym classes. Inside is a spectacle that will build up the body, inspire the mind, and elevate the character of its participants.

What goes on?Crudely dressed people are running wildly about the gym. One in a lath robe, another in a pair of gym bloomers, and another, well, just in. The gym class is having a costume party.

Erie Saliers stole the show when he came dressed as a glamorous girl, reborn in a red stymie dress, with his trommers shining at the knees. Frances Williamson and Dave Huley came dressed as two old fashioned grandmas with bonnets, black umbrellas, and high-heeled shoes.

John Sands, wearing a bath robe, represented "Pinky's" gym classes. Inside is a spectacle that will build up the body, inspire the mind, and elevate the character of its participants.

On paper the freshmen class seems to have the advantage over the other classes, but you can never tell what is bound to happen during the season. The senior and junior classes will be lucky to get five men on the court, much less put out a good team. They will be out there fighting as long as they stand up.

Let's take a peek into another game of "Pulldit" gym classes. Inside is a spectacle that will build up the body, inspire the mind, and elevate the character of its participants.

What goes on? Crudely dressed people are running wildly about the gym. One in a lath robe, another in a pair of gym bloomers, and another, well, just in. The gym class is having a costume party.

Erie Saliers stole the show when he came dressed as a glamorous girl, reborn in a red stymie dress, with his trommers shining at the knees. Frances Williamson and Dave Huley came dressed as two old fashioned grandmas with bonnets, black umbrellas, and high-heeled shoes.

John Sands, wearing a bath robe, represented "Pinky's" gym classes. Inside is a spectacle that will build up the body, inspire the mind, and elevate the character of its participants.

On paper the freshmen class seems to have the advantage over the other classes, but you can never tell what is bound to happen during the season. The senior and junior classes will be lucky to get five men on the court, much less put out a good team. They will be out there fighting as long as they stand up.

Let's take a peek into another game of "Pulldit" gym classes. Inside is a spectacle that will build up the body, inspire the mind, and elevate the character of its participants.

What goes on? Crudely dressed people are running wildly about the gym. One in a lath robe, another in a pair of gym bloomers, and another, well, just in. The gym class is having a costume party.

Erie Saliers stole the show when he came dressed as a glamorous girl, reborn in a red stymie dress, with his trommers shining at the knees. Frances Williamson and Dave Huley came dressed as two old fashioned grandmas with bonnets, black umbrellas, and high-heeled shoes.

John Sands, wearing a bath robe, represented "Pinky's" gym classes. Inside is a spectacle that will build up the body, inspire the mind, and elevate the character of its participants.