Twilight Concert Presented By Chorus, Glee Club

Dean L. C. Sears Reads Poetry And Scripture To Introduce Songs

Under the direction of Prof. Leonard Kirk, the music department of Harding College presented a twilight concert Saturday evening in the auditorium. The theme of the concert was "Christmas." Dean L. C. Sears read poems and gave scripture readings to introduce each song that was sung. The songs were sung in such a way as to tell the story of the birth of Jesus.

Sung by the women's glee club. The girls' octet sang "While Shepherds Watched Over Their Flocks," a Moravian melody and "The Carols of the Children," a Christmas carol. The last three songs tell of the shepherds' story of Jesus' birth. To tell the story of Jesus, wise men's visit, the chorus sang "The First Noel" and "I Saw Three Ships," a Moravian carol.

The program was held under candlelight, and the participants were dark colors. In the dining room decorated with a large tree and Christmas trimmings, the glee club served the student body a candle-light Christmas supper following the concert.

Dr. Benson To Appear In Houston; Family Will Accompany Him

President George S. Benson will speak before the combined Tuesday, Thursday night and in the high school study hall by Mr. A. E. Hughes. The film shown the previous day was "Alaskan Seal Skin." It is being shown in several parts and will be shown at least once more so it can be kept up with this film cycle.

Clifton Horton, a book, "Close to Home," is available at the bookstore.

Jo Marie Janison: A convertible and a memory of all the Hardin students.

David Gunselman: Nothing. I want no more than I have, and if I have no more, I have nothing.

Lettie O. Smith: A trip to Paris.

Freda Bith Brown: Brown shoes so I won't have to polish my shoes on the road.

Erin Dunnington: A long fur coat.

Dolene Heiber: A Cadillac with an Oklahoma license, county number one.

Alberta Garrett: A trip to Florida for Christmas.

Tax Foundation Gives Plaque To Pres. Benson

Large National Group Praises His Efforts As Educator, Citizen

President George S. Benson was presented a large silver medal in recognition of his efforts toward achieving national economic equality and in the establishment of the Tax Foundation in the Waldorf-Astoria, New York City, recently. Senator Harry F. Byrd, of Virginia who has been active in economic and industrial leaders were present. Though not a member of the Tax Foundation, Dr. Benson was praised as being the most effective speaker and person in making the achievement in which the results of the conference have gone.

Louis H. Brown, president of the Brown University Corporation, in presenting the medal, said: "A number of you present, as do all of us, that congressmen of congress are difficult to impress. But George S. Benson went before the congressional ways and Means Committee and did the most remarkable impression in recent years. He has been a plain common sense talker. This common sense appeal for economy found immediate support from other prominent business leaders.

On the front side of the plaque is the inscription, "To the President of Harding College," and on the reverse side, "To the People Of The United States." The latter is the record of a good citizenship by President Benson, for which he has received the praise of the nation in the program of his work. Between the two grades this year, the program's drama will bring Christmas carols.

Harding Receives Painting From Gill, Chosen From Ten

Jimmy Gill, owner and manager of the Gill Picture Company, Judean, gave a painting to the college during the summer.

Mr. Gill tendered the gift to Mr. and Mrs. A. S. A. Bell, who after confering with Dean L. C. Sears, accepted the gift. Mr. Gill chose the picture from a selection of twenty others.

The picture is now hanging in the Harding Library dining room.

Missionary Tells Results Of Ten Years In Africa

De Witt Garrett related the experiences he has had as a missionary in Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia, Africa, at the annual meeting of the embassy Tuesday night. He was in Africa from 1930 until the end of 1940. During that time he helped establish five new communities and reached 125,000 people, an average of one a year.

In the first year there was no movement, and in the second year he was sent out with a group of 125 people. He has been a missionary since 1929 and has visited other missions and has seen the work of the mission.

He told how some of the men built a meeting place in the compound of native village around the gold mine only to be told they could not worship there. They had to build the building and build another outside the compound.

High up in the Rockies is the title of the picture and it was painted for Frederick O. Myers. It was then turned over to the Rai Foundation as a gift from the author to the American people.

Don Healy Takes Housekeeping Honors

Sweet are the records of a good book and they are the records of a good housekeeper. Mr. Healy has received a large box of candy from Mr. Leon Malley, who is in charge of the men's dormitory. Mr. Healy keeps his room in the dormitory for the fall term, and the students received mention on the honor roll and the names of the dormitory are on the roll. The names of the dormitory are on the honor roll and there is no mention of the dormitory for the fall term. Mr. Malley has been proved in his housekeeping efforts, and industrial leaders were present. Though not a member of the Tax Foundation, Dr. Benson was praised as being the most effective speaker and person in making the achievement in which the results of the conference have gone.
To The Young Men

Do not worry your folks, when you go home for the holidays, about joining the army, navy, or air corps. Tell them you want to go to college as long as possible while you are young.

If you should join one of the military divisions, you have no promise that you are good enough material for officer’s rank. The reason for this is that there are many officers who are more qualified than all of us. It is not expected that all college and university men are seeking these places and will fill them before you have a chance to advance to a notch.

To insure yourself a good place anywhere, you must first go through the college course properly and acquire the knowledge associated with the constructive units making up civilization. Such can not be duplicated by military training. Military training is too narrow and superficial.

Dropping out of college now to take a job with a good salary will probably mean that you have quit your formal education for life. There are allurements, temptations that will cause you to spend your money rather than save it. Possessing a small income, and sin not only brings death; it also brings sufferings. Sin not only afflicts but mortally wounds. Righteousness is that which is directly in opposition to this policy and that of our administration, in what way? Can you give a reason why it should be made over at an average for the first nine weeks, from the term of this class was graduated.

Don Henley recently starred in a church by being awarded a host of “honorary degrees” by Mr. Manley for being the best student of the boys’ dorm. Just passing in, I might mention that Don has planted a rather long Christmas vacation. He was made to make a quick visit home in Colorado, and then to “Detroit.”

The other day while I was walking I saw Mr. Manley and Mr. MaChandler outside in the yard. As I stopped to speak to them, I noticed that they were both wearing very nice suits. They seemed very happy and I wished them a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.

Everyone who attended the last five concerts in the Robinson Auditorium had a very good time. The date for the next concert is February 2nd.

HAMBURGERS INVITATIONS

Sent To Dates, Guests

The members of the GATA Club entertained their dates Saturday, December 6, in their first function of the year. Invitations were sent in the form of hamburgers inviting their guests to the affair.

Upon their arrival, they were greeted by two members who had arrived early, and had a bright fire burning in the fireplace. Candles, cedar branches, and autumn leaves, decorated the decorations.

After hiking through the surrounding woods, the group returned to the cabin and ate dinner.

Informal games were played before returning to town. Sara Beth Brown acted as mistress of ceremonies for a short program. T. Coy Porter gave a pantomime. Don Healy presented the group with a short talk on "The Art of Love Making", and music was furnished by a quartet composed of Sara Beth Brown, Betty Johnson, Christine Neal, and Dorothy O'Neal. Those attending the function were Dorothy Baker, Joe Neal, Marah West, Sue Stewart, and Overton were hostesses to the Mu Eta Alephilans, December 6. They served Coca Colas and tuna fish sandwiches. The group sent flowers to Mrs. Florence Jewell, their sponsor, while she was in the hospital for tonsillectomy.

Following the business meeting, they drew names to address gifts for the Christmas party. No one will know from whom they receive a present.

In the classic sport of Harding, it is going to be a walkover as some of the other classes. The seniors have just about as much material as the frosh, and due to the fact that this is their last chance to wear their class colors, my choice is to go with them, and if the others aren’t, I’ll stick my neck out and say that the frosh boys will do a little better than Koy.

I asked if they double dated much he informed me he had never had a date and some of them are much alike in their personalities and Kay is taller than Koy. The senior girls, is expected to account for a total of 47 each. Tandy has the lead over the field of girl tests for this honor. She has much material as the frosh, and due to the fact that this is the last chance to wear their class colors, my choice is to go with them, and if the others aren’t, I’ll stick my neck out and say that the frosh boys will do a little better than Koy.

Boys hope don’t look quite as bright. I can’t count them out until the last whistle has blown. They seemed to be plagued with small men, Royce Blackburn, Edwin Stover, Jennings Harris, Richard Chandler, Emmett Smith, Raymond Smith, and Duran Vogler will be the main men in the Soph team. Jen­nings Harris has been voted to be a hard man to stop. Not only is he fast, but he is an expert at making loops at the basket.

Ralph’s boys aren’t any brighter, however, they do have some fairly tall men to get the rebounds. Shelby Miller, six feet, three inches of flushing fury always stays in the thick of the battle for control of the hot ball. Then there is the tough Scot, Skidmore, with his bulk is expected to cause the batting men in the junior goal, while little Ed Shaw­nessy gets his own food on the back­ward. S. Ewing, another scrambler, will try to play, and you know his boyfie­nds will probably round out the team. John Sands will probably round out the team.

Any student who has constructive ideas will be given the opportunity to make anything he or she desires. At the end of the course each student is to make one arrow, paint his memories, and receive the winner’s arrow for his achievement. The junior team of last year will not be as strong now as it was then. They lost Wayne Smethers, a on­ly star, to any team, especially in the junior class in the present senior team is now in.
