My dear friends:

It was a real pleasure to get your letter with its interesting news. I don't know when I have ever been more pleased than I was to hear about your invitation to the Austins. Nothing in my past work stands out as vividly as the warm hospitality that the Austins extended to us from time to time.

Sue and I will be moving to Cookeville, Tenn. on Feb. 1, 1960. We will be working with the Broad Street Congregation. I understand that your new preacher is from Cookeville. He can fill you in on the work that this good church has done down through the years.

I will also be able to complete my education at Tennessee Tech. which is located in Cookeville. As far as we know now, Sue will get her B.S. degree on the last Sunday we are here. It sure will be good to have her home for a change.

Please give my regards to all of the good people there in the church. We hope that you will remember us and our new work in your prayers.

Love,

Sue, and John Allen
