Benson Speaks To Citizen Body About Revival
He Is Selected To Serve
On Organizing Committee
Of The New Association

President George S. Benson spoke to approximately 60 business and professionals who met to reorganize a taxpayers' association, to bring about economics in public spending. The banquet meeting was held at prima hotel, Wednesday evening, and Dr. Benson was the third speaker on the program.

Dr. Benson was also one of ten appointments made to the Organizing Committee which will help form the "Arkansas Public Expenditures Survey," as the association will be called. These committee appointments were announced during the meeting by J. V. Satterfield, chairman.

With months of study to back him, Dr. Benson presented the problem facing Arkansas as the steadily rising cost of living. He called upon Arkansas to set the example for reducing nonfood expenditures.

Applause interrupted Dr. Benson as he told how the NYA students at Harding gave up their allowances, so that the money might be applied to defense expenditures.

To serve with Dr. Benson on the committee are: L. M. Martin, El Dorado; L. A. Wackso, Harrison; Ewing Pyatt, Fayetteville; R. H. Alexander, Scott; and J. F. Flewitt, W. R. James, Hot Springs; J. E. Harmon, John Brown, Little Rock.

He is chosen when a group of some representative citizens from all sections of the state adopted unani­ mously a resolution calling for the perfecting of such an organization and instructing the ten men listed to get on with the job.

Bentley Orates On Oratory

By VIRGIN BENTLEY

The doors of these speakers may not be "as subtle as radium in the rock, as distinct as the lightning in the cloud, as strange as the current in the sea, and as tenacious as the lingering notes of unforgettable music," but they will be a true sample of this year's Harding orators.

This game of matching words, personality, and other combinations, will take place February 28. Observers report that each year they find the "freshest" orator and the "longest orators" apparently spring up from nowhere, and make the oratorical race a close one.

The purpose of this contest is to help in developing the oratorical ability of students. Titles of winning orations during the last two years are: "Que­ rious About the West," "The Sinner's Delight," "Home," by Mary Bramen, "An Open Letter to Unpopular Girl," by John Sands, and "Relighting the Flame," by Mildred McRae.

Henceforth a 25-cent fee has been charged for entrance into the contest, but this year the Bloom staff has announced that there will be no fee for entering the contest. All college students are eligible.

Students To Help Run Cooking School

Students studying Nutrition and Food Buying will help in the organization and operation of cooking schools for White County under the direction of Miss N. O. Dixon, Home Demonstration Agent.

Miss Dixon said plans are to be put in action during February. She announced the arrangements at a recent meeting of the Health, Consumer's Interest and Nutrition Committee.

How to foster interest in bettering nutrition over White County was the topic of general discussion at the meeting.

Plans were discussed for displays in town shop windows. Mrs. S. A. Bell, professor of home economics, is in charge of this project, and the Food Buying Class will work out a basket design on which the cost and nutritional value of foods will be listed.

Before the business meeting Charlie Forrest, member of Harding's girls' "Altoe Blue Crown" and "From the Land of the Sky-Blue Water" by Neil Richmond Eberhart, Christine Neal played a piano solo.

College Changes Day Of Rest

Harding students will go to school on Mondays instead of Saturdays from now on.

This was decided by the faculty at a meeting held last week. Since so many students have jobs in town, having Saturday free will enable them to work then when they are needed most.

The schedule will be the same except that Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday classes will meet on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, and Wednesday and Friday classes will be on Tuesdays and Thursdays. All extra-curricular activities will meet on their regular days.

The faculty also decided that on February 9 when the United States starts daylight saving time, clocks here will be turned up an hour and classes will begin an hour earlier.

Students For Listed For Basketball
As Season Ends

All-Stars Selected Made On Basis Of Sportsmanship; Value To Team; Performance

By CLIFTON GATELEY

Basketball season is coming to a close. With the playing of the junior-senior game, completed last week, the basketball season is over. Each team played the three other classes, twice, giving all teams an equal opportunity to show what they were made of. The one game was for all-star teams.

Selections were made on sportsmanship, ability to take it if a real raw deal was given, and effective play. Not only the coach's opinion was considered. The intramural tournament was the only basis for performance evaluation.

Since there were so many good players, the number of selections was increased to a lower standard. Thus, for the first time, there was selected a "second team.

Each team is composed of five players and two substitutes.

I'm terribly confused! I had been worried, thinking that going on daylight saving time might get me tangled up on the time, but I hardly see how it will effect me now, since I am confused anyway. Here's my problem.

Most of us around here don't know what time it is, whether we have daylight saving time or not. The confusion is a time of its own, and continues strongly that there is time and being followed by one. For example, the class bell rings five minutes before 2 a.m., which means that breakfast is at 7 a.m. The dawn of the new time, (Chandler time, we call it) is five minutes slower than our old time. Hence, what I have is about five or ten minutes off from the old time. This all leads to such confusion that I lose myself in the day's rush, not knowing where each day has taken me. The freshmen girls' basketball all star team scored a victory of 38 to 19 over optional team made up of the best players from the basketball teams of the other classes.

The optional team began the scoring with a free throw to start the ball rolling, but the freshmen took over to keep a six point lead until the half. After the half, they started gaining and ended the game.

Optional team members included: Jack Nadeau, Jack Vasquez, and Bob Bell. Marvolene Chambers led the scoring with nine field goals and six free throws out of 35 shots at the basket, totaling 16 of the 19 points made by the team.

Bison Sports
By Clifton Ganus

Something new occurred when six boys tangled with a girls' basketball team down at the gym. In gym classes the boys and girls have divided up and played according to girls' rules, but this is the first time, at least in past two or three years, that boys have played against the girls.

Don't kid yourselves about the way the girls play. From the sidelines it sometimes appears that they are not so hot, just playing well because they are against the weaker sex. However, they can handle that ball like most of the boys.

Carmen Watson, freshman all star, kept her scoring record with nine field goals and five free throws out of 46 shots, totaling 26 points. The optional team began the scoring with a loop and by careful and snappy passing worked it under their control. The game was fast and clean. Thirty-eight boys signed up for the team down at the gym.

The optional team is as follows.

TEAM No. 1, McLaughlin, Lambe rt, McCreary, Johnson, Davis, Waters, Kenney, Stover, Lamb, Richardson, Harris on, and Magness, and Shewmaker.

TEAM No. 2, McLaughlin, Lambert, Stover, Lamb, Richardson, Harrison, and Sands, playing in one game less than McCreary.

TEAM No. 4, Tibby, Tippe, D. Lawyer, Eberidges, Woolton, and Shewmaker.

TEAM No. 5, M. Miller, R. Lawyer, E. Porter, Adams, A. Edwards, and Sawyer.

TEAM No. 6, R. Smith, Swang, Mc­Inter, Chandler, C. Ganus, and Whitemore.

Ruffian Team Beats
Soph Loop Quintet

Following is a list of teams and the individual players:

TEAM No. 1, Laughton, F. Mason, Magnes, Van Patton, Shindler, Green, and E. D. Ganus. Ganus was one of the main soph players, second team is as follows.

TEAM No. 2, McLaughlin, Lambert, Stover, Lamb, Richardson, Harrison, and Sands.

TEAM No. 4, Tibby, Tippe, D. Lawyer, Eberidges, Woolton, and Shewmaker.

TEAM No. 5, M. Miller, R. Lawyer, E. Porter, Adams, A. Edwards, and Sawyer.

TEAM No. 6, R. Smith, Swang, Mc­Inter, Chandler, C. Ganus, and Whitemore.

Six Teams Made
For Volleyball

Thirty-eight boys signed up for the intramural volleyball tournament. These were drawn and six teams were made. Following is a list of teams and the individual players:

TEAM No. 1, Laughton, F. Mason, Magnes, Van Patton, Shindler, Green, and E. D. Ganus. Ganus was one of the main soph players. He was one of the men on the second all-star team. He scored 25 points in the last quarter and by careful and snappy passing worked it under their control. The game was fast and clean.

The highest score for any one game also goes to the freshmen. They played in 53 points against the seniors in their second encounter of the season for the high mark. The sophs held them to 30 points when they scored the first 30 points. The sophs have the dishonour of scoring least in any one game, making only 53 points and the second time they played the freshmen.

Then Vaughan, playing for the sophs, got loose and sank one to give the sophs their first score. Mason followed quickly with another looper and the score was tied at four all at the end of the first quarter.

"Foos" Vaughan proved to be the mainstay of the soph team while he remains in the game. Early in the second period he shook loose under the goal and sank two more field goals to give the sophs a four point lead. However, this didn't hold once as Virgil Lawyer and Colis Campbell retaliated and tied the score. Harris sank a free throw for the sophs and Renegar broke away, dribbled down the field and sank one exactly. This put the score 10-9 in favor of the Ruffians at the half.

Harris hit the tipoff of the second half down to the soph goal where Vaughan was waiting. He easily sank a field goal, but Warren, substituting for Bradley, quickly retaliated with a goal. Vaughan, using his skill and height under the basket, sank another, and another to put the sophs way out in front. Vaughan left the game and from then on it was all in favor of the high school team. They combined speed and fighting ability to easily outscore the sophs, holding them to no score in the last period.

Warren scored two field goals in the last quarter to make his second and total of one point in the final period of the game.

Vaughan was high point man of the game with 13 points to his credit. Twelve of them were made in the last half.

There were 35 fouls committed, 21 by the sophs and 14 by the freshmen. Four men fouled out but were allowed to stay in the game, giving the one they fouled an extra shot. The juniors took advantage of the 21 soph fouls to score fourteen points, while the sophs managed to loop in eight of their free throws.
