Student Association Minutes

After devotional, the Executive Council of the Student Association met at 6:00 on November 30, 1965. All members were present except Cliff Ganus and Cynthia Hawkins, who are now on a chorus tour.

Old Business

Christmas committees reported on their progress. Decorations, wing projects, Christmas party, door prizes, and other activities were arranged for last minute details.

Since the S.A. will have its first general meeting in chapel on December 6, the program was planned and discussed. Kyle Smock will give a report on the movie program, then questionnaires will be passed out for student opinion. A treasurer's report will be given. Christmas announcements will be made in detail.

New Business

Several council members organized into a committee to suggest student chapel speakers. Several council members brought up ideas that students had suggested action that the S.A. might take, and the Council took appropriate action.

The Council adjourned at 8:00.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Byrd, Secretary

After a devotional, the Executive Council met at 6:00 on November 30, 1965. Cliff, and Cynthia, chorus members, were absent.

Old Business

Christmas activities:

David: For the Christmas party, how many and what kind of door prizes should be given?

Linda: Funny ones.

Dwayne: We'll leave this up to your committee. Be sure and set up times for practice of your project.

Jim: Can we have the tree moved from the gym to some place on campus after the party?

Dwayne: Well let Ken's committee be in charge of that.

Bob: To the girls who are in charge of getting people in charge of baskets for the wing projects, please give me their names for tomorrow night since I'm going to have a meeting with them Monday night.

Letter:

Dwayne: I received a letter from Kentucky asking that old clothes, etc. might be exchanged for decorations, greenery to help a needy family. What do you think we should do about this?

Dr. G: I'll write to them if that's necessary.

Bob: We could check with a minister in that area.

General S.A. Meeting:

Dwayne: The order of procedure will be: 1. Dismiss faculty 2. Treasurer's report 3. Movie report 4. Christmas announcements Are there other things that need to be brought up or could be mentioned? 1. KHCA—new time 2. Christmas activities emphasized 3. Activities planned for after Christmas

Vietnam Correspondence:

Dwayne: I been asked to present the idea of having a list of boys in Vietnam posted so that students might write to them.

David: It would let them know we care.
Vietnam Correspondence:
Linda: I don't think it should be compulsory or through social clubs.
Mike: I think it is a good idea because the boys are lonely.
Jim: Let's put up a list and let people check off the names as they write to the boys.
Dr. G: I think it's an "all right" idea.
Dwayne: I'll take charge of this. I will put it on Spac, poster, Easel, or personnel.

All Night Prayer Session for Boys in Vietnam:
Dwayne: This was suggested by Paul Gardner from Ohio Valley Christian College. It would be an all night prayer session for people in general, especially those in Viet Nam.
Mike: In Memphis, this is an inspirational period—with songs, scripture readings and prayer.
Bob: Is this a suitable topic to bring up in the general S.A. meeting? It affects the whole student body.
Dwayne: It would be going on at all the Christian colleges on Dec 10.
Jim: I don't know if it is practical; I've had no experience with it.
Linda: I think it's doubtful.
Jim: I think it's better on a smaller group level.
Dwayne: Paul said it uplifts the whole campus.
David: I think we should keep the publicity down.
Mike: I don't think we should vote on it in a general S.A. meeting.
Connie: I think we would feel closer if we, as a campus, do it.
Carolyn: I think we should emphasize world peace, not Viet Nam. I think it's good to involve all the colleges, as Christian young people, not college students.
Jim: Could a college church service do the same thing?
Bob: I think it would be beneficial to let the boys know we're praying for them.
Connie: I don't think we should publicize it at all.
Medearis: We're sacrificing something for them by staying up all night.
Bob: I move if the colleges have it, we have it and set up details later.
David: I think we should ask a faculty member.
Viet Name Correspondence:

Dr. Gilliam: This will certainly project the image of the school. I think, for this reason, we should consult a faculty member.

Dwayen: We need someone to clear and organize Lost and Found before Christmas. (Mike Whittaker)

Bob has agreed to take charge of getting timekeepers for the debate tournament for us.

Ken: I move we assume this as a project—that is, getting timekeepers for the debate tournament. David seconded, and all in favor.

Dr. Ganus has said we might have the All-Christian College Conference here next year.

S. A. Speaker for S.A. Speaks: Linda Byrd and Medearis

New Business

Connie: Some have asked if the S.A. could recommend that we get out the 3rd of January and go to school that Saturday so that those living far away could travel, not on New Year's day, but on Monday.

Bob: I move we put some "weight" behind this.

Dwayne: I'll mention it to the Administration, then maybe bring it up in the S.A. general meeting.

Jim: Some preacher students want to take their dates on their preaching assignments to hear them preach.

Dwayne: Let's listen around and see how many this will affect and how it will affect other people. We'll talk about this later.

Linda: Can we get more authority for the dorm mothers?

Dwayne: I'll check into last year's rules clarifications.

Bob: I move we adjourn. Dr. Gilliam seconded.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Byrd, Secretary
