Mr. John Allen Chalk

Dear John Allen:

I am looking forward to being with you. Although I did not discuss it with you, I thought maybe I could preach in the morning and afternoon and fly home after the afternoon service. This is what I did in Anderson, Indiana. Would this be acceptable at all? There might be a plane after the evening service, but I will just have to be here by eight o'clock on Monday if at all possible. I am giving three subjects. The first one will be for the morning; the second, for the afternoon; and the third, for the evening if you arrange for me to stay: "A Plea for Christ on the Cross," "Without Obedience There Is No Salvation," and "God Will Take Care of the Christian."

I will be glad to hear from you about your plans. I am enclosing the mats you requested.

Sincerely,

Willard Collins
