Student Association Minutes

On January 4, 1966 the Executive Council met for its regular weekly meeting. David Smith was absent. After the President led the devotional, he welcomed the Council back and thanked them for all their work during 1965.

Dwayne reminded the members to clear up all old business, such as folders. It was decided to contemplate showing the religious film, "In His Steps."

Kyle Smock, Movie Chairman, reported on the questionnaires handed out during the S.A. General meeting. The Council decided to start charging a fixed admission at the door at all movies, to remain on the Saturday night schedule, and to have a movie after finals are over.

The Council decided to have a "workshop meeting" on January 25. Connie Taylor and Linda Byrd decided to take charge of the S.A. Speaks for this week.

The Council was asked to think about future projects:

- Humanities Week
- Rule Clarification
- Chapel Programs
- Lost and Found Auction

The Council adjourned about 7:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Byrd, Secretary

Dwayne Van Rheenen, President
On January 4, 1966 the Executive Council met for its regular weekly meeting. David Smith was absent. After the President led the devotional, he welcomed the Council back and thanked them for all their work during 1965.

Old Business

Dwayne: All those who have mimeographed things, please straighten them up or do something with them.

Be sure and get your folders up to date. Also, make out lists and submit tentative examples of thank you notes to be typed.

Let's discuss the movie "In His Steps."

Connie: If it is good, let's show it without charge. I move we write for the movie, then preview it and show it if we want it. Bob seconded.

Dates set to have movie: January 26th, February 2nd

Kyle: I want to report to you the result of the questionnaires distributed about the movies in the general S.A. meeting. About 22.7% of the students returned their questionnaires.

The Council needs to discuss a few problems:
1. Type of admission (voluntary, required, where)
2. Grade of movies
3. Type of movies
4. Night—Friday and Saturday

Dwayne: We need to ask ourselves the question: Should the S.A. sponsor a second recreational activity every weekend?

Cliff: I move we try changing at the door at least this semester subject to approval by the "higher ups." Bob seconded and all were in favor.

Cliff: I move we stick to the Saturday schedule, but try to have one on Friday night on the first night feasible to do so. Ken seconded and all in favor.

Bob: I move we have a movie the Saturday night of 22nd. Mike seconded and all in favor of having movie, charging admission and announcing it in chapel.
