Student Association Minutes

After the devotional, Dwayne Van Rheenen called the regular meeting of the Executive Council to order. Dwayne made a few introductory remarks, then the Council began to discuss plans for this semester:

1. Humanities Week—a period dealing with different periods of history, such as Medieval, Renaissance, Romantic and Contemporary periods.

2. Lost and Found Service—a "clearing out" drive to display lost items or list items so that people can claim those items by sliding a note under the S.A. door or coming to the S.A. office from 3:30 to 5:00 each day until Tuesday.

3. Letters to Servicemen—a discussion of the effectiveness of this service and possible continuation of this.

4. Emerald Room—a study in progress which might result in suggestions concerning the Emerald Room.

5. Activity Calendars—calendars printed to help students in planning activities for the semester will be sold after chapel on Thursday and all day Thursday in the Student Center for a dime.

Council members discussed ideas which the students had offered to them during the past week. Among these suggestions were the following:

1. Plan whereby preaching students might take someone with them on preaching assignment.

2. Emphasis on honesty at Harding College and possible honor system initiated.

4. Late privileges for girls one time a week.

The Council discussed the attitude and condition of students at Harding College during the past year and what the Council could do to be a real service to the student body. The Council adjourned about 7:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Byrd, Secretary

Dwayne Van Rheenen, President
Several members of the Executive Council met for the regular meeting at 6:11 on February 8, 1966. Dwayne led the devotional.

Dwayne reminded the members to clear their expenditures through the treasurer. Dwayne called for various committee reports:

1. Humanities Week: Cliff Ganus

   The committee met with faculty members and divided the study into four sections, dealing with the Medieval, Renaissance, Romantic and Contemporary periods of history. They suggested using the Bison, suggesting a literary edition. They also mentioned a possible creative writing contest.

2. Lost and Found Auction: Jim Anderson

   Mike Frampton moved that the auction be held on February 17, a motion which passed unanimously. The Council discussed what to do with the money received. Carolyn Medearis suggested asking Dr. Ganus what we could do with the money, then she moved that the Council apply the money we receive from the auction specifically on something on campus for the students since it is their money. Mike seconded and the motion passed.

   Suggestions for the use of the money were:
   1. Pay the deficit on the movie fund
   2. Apply it to good ideas on the Emerald Room
   3. Do not put in general fund

   The Council decided to post a list of all items which have been turned in, then collect slips which have been put under the S.A. door claiming the articles, and distribute them from 3:30 to 5:00 everyday until Tuesday night—all after an announcement in chapel.

3. Letters to Servicemen: Mike Frampton

   Mike suggested making the service more organized and more interest stimulated in the students about the service. He suggested chapel announcements, "form" letters, publishing letters in Bison, putting gospel in letters and advertising more possibly. Dr. Gilliam mentioned missionaries that might like to receive encouragement.
4. Emerald Room: Bob Rader (Will report next week)

5. Calendars: Carolyn Medearis

Calendars will be sold after clever announcement in chapel Thursday morning at strategic spots on campus, then in Student Center all day long, then in bookstore if any are left to sell.

New Business

1. Honor System or Emphasis on Honesty—discussion on promoting honest character by speeches and editorials.

2. Arrangement on "away" ballgames not suitable.

3. Trips with student preachers

   Reasons for arrangement: 1. Girls should hear future husband. 2. Can't attend church together 3. Time set to get back to school. 4. Girl is asset to boy. 5. Companionship desired.

   Reasons against system: 1. Improper conduct. 2. Hard to get back at certain time. 3. Hard to regulate. 4. Could work every-other-Sunday system. 5. Limit to upperclassmen.

4. Late privileges once a week.

David: I move we adjourn.

Connie: I second it.

Respectfully submitted,

Linda Byrd, Secretary
