Mr. John Allen Chalk,
2001 Division Avenue,
Dayton, Ohio.

Dear John:

I know that you are leaving Northridge. I hear that a man from Jackson, Mississippi is taking your place. I AM LEAVING EL DORADO! So I wonder if the man who is taking your place, would like to suggest to the elders where he is leaving in Jackson..... You see! Well, of course it is possible that you do not even know the preacher that is coming. So that's it!

I guess Dayton spiled me (jes, just leave it that way "spiled", I started to correct it, but I guess maybe that will express it better than "spoiled"). The good success I had there becomes a gauge by which I want to measure success in other places. So when they do not develop as they should I become despondent.

My work here has not shown any signs of growth. It seems that every one has the brakes locked and gears jammed. So in a meeting of elders it was decided that I would leave.

COME ON JOHN! find me a place in the north. If you want to come south. OK.

Merry Xmas to all at Northridge.

Sincere love.
