Dear Reverend Chalk:

Thank you for your letter of March 6, regarding the missionary, Mr. Ralph Henley, who was denied a permit to enter Israel for the purpose of carrying on the work of your church in that country.

I shall be happy to be of help in the matter, as I did in the cases of Messrs. Duyane and Donald Hindsley who had the same difficulty with the French government. I hope we get the same good results, and I promise to send you any information I receive from our State Department here on the situation.

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Paul F. Schenck
