The Executive Council met at 6:00 pm on February 7, 1967. All members were present except Lundy Neely.

First, David Smith sent a copy of the movie schedule around the table, reporting that a copy would be made available to each student next week.

J. Ray Toland reported that he had turned the antenna on the FM radio in the Student Center and hoped that such would improve the reception.

Malissa May was asked to start a file on the telephone pads. Dave Young informed the Council that the next SA Speaks program will be prepared by Helen Howell and Bill Howard. The group set April 13, 1967, as the tentative date for the next auction.

Next, David Smith reported that the Interclub Council had met and disbanded itself as such. This move was taken because the group felt it had no real reason for existing. They agreed that it would still be possible to call the presidents of the social clubs together, but without calling such a group the ICC. They also discussed Pledge Week and drew up a set of rules for the trophy case.

Then the Council heard a report from Linda Byrd on the topic of Friendly Week. David told the group that Don Johnson was working on an academic study. David also reported that he had talked to Mr. Stan Green about the handbook. Mr. Green had suggested that the SA write all the Southwest Conference schools for suggestions and help. The Council agreed that this might be helpful.
Then David asked the Council if it felt that the election date for SA officers needed to be changed. Commenting that campaigning might be more effective if elections were held on Wednesday rather than on Tuesday, he wondered if the Council felt such a revision in the Constitution would be worth the concern. The group agreed that it would.

The Council also concurred that a set of By-laws would be profitable in the Constitution. David reported that he would check on such.

David submitted a set of rules for the use of the campus bulletin boards and offered to check with Dean Lawyer about commercial advertisements. Helen Howell moved that the set of rules presented be accepted. Her motion was seconded and passed.

Barbara Neely asked that the date of the supper at Dr. Gilliam's house be changed to February 21. The suggestion met with Dr. Gilliam's approval, so the Council agreed to the change.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sherry Balthrop, Secretary
