In My Opinion

Dear Editor,

Although past decades would seem to proclaim, concerning the sacredness of education, the missions of the Gospel have been cursed with a service of death (or is it a high school education, with an occasional exception of one here and there, who will find a way in which it is, in reality, possible to simultaneously train for the great spiritual accomplishment, among the de-needed is the result of realizing. Our fact the converse is nearer the truth. Sometimes our visitor wants us to come in, or the strength of character to tell a fellow, student need is either being met or denied by each one of us. In each of us something hasn't got to be put down yet, and the Kingdom of God can't be established or maintained because of those selfishnesses really need to die. Angus, Jesus, the most delightful thing has happened: besides that, it concerns none other than the esteemed Bursar of Harding. While at Harding Jim Bill and Betty were studying for instance—is often hindered by others. Such concentration is not a gift, but an achievement. Also they have received no mention: it is the great majority of people did not doubt that the apostles were inspired of God; nor did they contend with whom we stand.

New club members were the general public, but the Alpha Theta members at the Alpha Theta party Saturday night.

Susan Walsh and Mary Carroll welcomed the club members. All were dressed in their best for the event. The girls were consumers and later joined the party by the Mexican-born bride.

Pears, cookies, and cold drinks were appetizers. "A meet" was provided by members with Holders in "Jackpot."
Benson Elected To Committee

Peru. George S. Benson has been elected a member of the Executive Committee of the General Association of Collegians.

Member colleges of the General Asnociation are judged by their work and re-numeral appeared in previous weekly editions of the Executive Committee. This asnociation was organized two years ago by educators connected with small colleges and private colleges public institutions are also eligible to membership. The purpose of the association is for evaluation of college and the courses of the association.

Harding College is a charter member of the General Association. It is not a regional organization, it is national.
