The Executive Council met at 6:00 pm on March 7, 1967. All members were present except Lundy Neely and Mike Moore.

David Smith first led the group in a brainstorming session concerned with the question: "What can we as students do to encourage greater monetary contribution to Harding College by future alumni?" After the twelve-minute session, the Council decided to invite a large number of group leaders (on campus) to a similar meeting. The session was scheduled for Thursday, March 9 at 6:00 pm.

Next, David reported that the Christian College Conference evaluation material would be sent out on Thursday, March 9. He asked Barbara Neely to be in charge of mailing procedures.

The third topic of discussion was that of the proposed constitution changes. The Council decided to attempt to alter only two things: the date of SA elections and the lack of provision for By-laws.

David announced that our participation in the Prayer Breakfast should be defined as soon as possible. The group voted to support the Breakfast in a limited way, allowing the Harding name a place on the list of participating colleges.

Then David informed the Council that an Academic Study was being planned by Don Johnson. He asked that each Council member compile a list of possible areas of concern for such a study. A committee consisting of Don Johnson, Mike O'Neal and Sherry Balthrop was designated to perform the actual study.
The Youth Forum was the next topic of concern. David asked that Jake Vincent be contacted in regard to a Lily Pool Devotional. The group was encouraged to complete all plans for the Forum immediately.

Dave Young reported that Mike Moore was scheduled for the SA Speaks program on Thursday, March 9. The Council also decided that a suggestion box for possible topics of discussion on the program might be helpful.

The Council agreed that Five hundred copies of the Highlights Record would be suitable for distribution and sale to the student body.

David asked that the Council not be guilty of expecting special privileges in regard to the Emerald Room hours.

David then reported that the type of bulletin board needed for the Student Center offices would probably cost around $40 or $50. The group voted to offer the board as a possible club project. Dave was asked to write a letter to club presidents in regard to such an attempt.

Each member of the Council was requested to try to find a coffee table for use in the next Coffee House.

Next, David Smith reported that Virgil Lawyer asked that supervision of the dormitory bulletin boards be left under the control of the dormitory supervisors.

The Council next considered sponsoring a reception for the students involved in the Junior College Basketball Tournament. The decision was to allow Doug Faust the authority to plan such a reception in the Emerald Room on Saturday, March 11. The Council decided to allow each school a separate time for visiting in the Emerald Room and to encourage each group to provide its own refreshments.

The group discussed next the situation at the College Laundry. Helen Howell was requested to check on the policies in effect there now.

Bill Howard reported that many pairs of eyeglasses are in the Lost and Found. The Council decided to announce the fact in chapel and ask that students check the supply. Helen Howell and Sherry Balthrop were asked to iron, mend, and repair any items in the Lost and Found in need of such.

The idea of a Book Exchange was introduced and discussed. Dave Young was requested to compile a list of suggestions on the topic.

The group decided to write Mr. Tucker in order that policy concerning advertisements on classroom walls be clarified and enforced.

Because there was no further business to be discussed, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sherry Balthrop, Secretary
