The third annual speech festival was began last Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Mrs. Lawr-son's classroom. The festival will continue through the winter and part of the spring quarter.

The past speech festivals have been very successful, as was evidenced by the large attendance at the first festival. Mrs.
Lawrson has many differ-table events scheduled for the next few days.

Registration should be made before the Christmas holidays at the next scheduled event of registering can be made at the basement of the school.

The second annual Christmas dinner is to be held in the auditorium on Thursday evening, December 21st, 1943.

The annual speech program was opened in the auditorium on December 19th, 4:30 p.m.

The subject of the program was the speeches of the selection from the class, and the specific the Harker characters in the speech was Benson would debate Jones.

Pro. George S. Benson will debate
Robert J. Jones, mass communication instructor of the Speech Department at 6:00 P.M.
Saturday, January 6.

The subject will be "Freedom of Speech.

Con." The debate on this subject will take place on the same day before the Little Rock Beech-Lee auditorium, the other one was held before the Little Rock Limo Club Wednesday.

Pro. Benson opposes federal aid to ad-

He spoke on the two labor groups and his own group in Indianapolis, Ind., early this week.

Benson will conduct an eight day's vacation.

The scheduled events will be posted on the bulletin boards and published in the Herald.

THIS WEEK'S QUESTION

At this time of your interest in Christmas and Seans Class and gifts, so the question follows that line, too.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

SANTA CLAUS.

Is there one there or how can there be so many?

Marjorie: I never could undergo how she got down the chimney.

Mary Lembo: I think he is a good boy—but he doesn't do much around.

Mary Beller: I think it is still true, but I'll tell you more about him after Christmas.

Peary Washington: He
does— with the man shadings there.

Sona Walker: He's a wonderful person! He's been my favorite man for a long time.

Premier Shannon: Two days at home and a lot of good stuff to—
—be a good gift in his shoes.

Teri May Quavern: I never thought she was a thing. But now you tell —she's OK.

Billy Jo Morris: You are going to have us all over the place. Be the only one to say he's an old man.

Carrmen Lushat's: He's a grand old
man.

Benjamin: I don't think there is anything about this time of the year.

Beverly Breslow: My daddy is really a good guy. He is the greatest. But I don't think about this time of the year.

Sargent Hacker: He has our favorite people for a long time. I think this is the only thing we will get to see him this Christmas.

Benson will

Benson will address Jones.

Pro. George S. Benson will debate
Robert J. Jones, mass communication
instructor of the Speech Department at 6:00 P.M.
Saturday, January 6.

The subject will be "Freedom of Speech.

Con." The debate on this subject will be held before the Little Rock Limo Club Wednesday.

Pro. Benson opposes federal aid to ad-

He spoke on the two labor groups
and his own group in Indianapolis, Ind., early this week.

This week's question follows that line, too.

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

SANTA CLAUS.

Is there one there or how can there be so many?

Marjorie: I never could undergo how she got down the chimney.

Mary Lembo: I think he is a
good boy—but he doesn't do much around.

Mary Beller: I think it is still
true, but I'll tell you more about him
after Christmas.

Peary Washington: He
does— with the man shadings there.

Sona Walker: He's a wonderful person! He's been my favorite man for a long time.

Premier Shannon: Two days at home and a lot of good stuff to—
—be a good gift in his shoes.

Teri May Quavern: I never thought
she was a thing. But now you tell
—she's OK.

Billy Jo Morris: You are going to have us all over the place. Be
the only one to say he's an old
man.

Carrmen Lushat's: He's a grand old
man.

Benjamin: I don't think there is anything about this time of the year.

Beverly Beller: I think it is still true, but I'll tell you more about him
after Christmas.

Peary Washington: He
does— with the man shadings there.

Sona Walker: He's a wonderful person! He's been my favorite man for a long time.

Premier Shannon: Two days at home and a lot of good stuff to—
—be a good gift in his shoes.

Teri May Quavern: I never thought
she was a thing. But now you tell
—she's OK.

Billy Jo Morris: You are going to have us all over the place. Be
the only one to say he's an old
man.

Carrmen Lushat's: He's a grand old
man.

Benjamin: I don't think there
is anything about this time of the year.

Beverly Beller: I think it is still
true, but I'll tell you more about him
after Christmas.
Dear Editor:

It is now quite a good week since I last wrote to you. I have been busy with other things, but I just want to give you all an update on our camping trip.

This is the fifth week of our camping trip, and we are still having a great time. We have been exploring the beautiful wilderness and enjoying the fresh air. The days are warm and sunny, and the nights are cool and refreshing. We have been cooking our meals over the campfire and telling stories around the bonfire.

We have also been taking long hikes through the mountains, which have been a great way to get some exercise and enjoy the beautiful scenery. The views from the tops of the mountains are stunning, and we have been taking lots of pictures.

Overall, we are having a fantastic time and are looking forward to the rest of our camping trip. I hope you are all enjoying your summer activities as well.

Best wishes,

[Signature]

K.C.
Girls' Social Clubs Elect Officers For Winter Term

The Alpha Theta elected Julia Tranum president at the last regular club meeting. Ina McKee is the new vice­ president, Ella Lee West, secretary. Elizabeth knobloch, president of the Zeta Chi­ nity, and Willene Hulette, reporter.

The Beta Theta elected Gladys Blevin­ son as their new president by unanimous vote at the Christmas banquet which had been attractively composed of cakes, apples, cookies and rarefied gift. The girls drew names for the Blytheville Air Force Officer's Home. Thus was Maxine Lambert and Helen King both of the JU Go Ju social club.

Dover was a junior and a member of the JU Go Ju social club.

PERSONNEL

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the campus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in our eyes when we don't put something in ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the beauty that we can have

Personal

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the campus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical
entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur
Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax
by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in
our eyes when we don't put something in
ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the
beauty that we can have

Personal

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the campus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical
entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur
Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax
by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in
our eyes when we don't put something in
ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the
beauty that we can have

Personal

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the cam­ bus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical
entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur
Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax
by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in
our eyes when we don't put something in
ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the
beauty that we can have

Personal

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the cam­
bus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical
entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur
Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax
by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in
our eyes when we don't put something in
ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the
beauty that we can have

Personal

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the cam­
bus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical
entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur
Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax
by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in
our eyes when we don't put something in
ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the
beauty that we can have

Personal

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the cam­
bus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical
entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur
Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax
by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in
our eyes when we don't put something in
ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the
beauty that we can have

Personal

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the cam­
bus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical
entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur
Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax
by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in
our eyes when we don't put something in
ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the
beauty that we can have

Personal

The weekend of December 11 and 12
was the last official day for the cam­
bus that academic year. After a formal banquet in the Mary E. A.'s and their guests who had Christ­mas at home.

The program consisted of the musical
entertainer, "A Song of Peace and Loves," and "And the Holy Night," sung
by the quartet, Jewell Shaw, Arthur
Houtz, Mrs. Jewell Shaw, and Mr. W. F. Mattox.

The Beta Theta's Christmas party was in the girls reception room, and another to
Mrs. Mattox, club sponsor.

The party was brought to a climax
by Miss Jewell Shaw's reading of the

I am one of the high
spots of my career.

I am a Methodist
and I will not put something in
our eyes when we don't put something in
ourselves. Let us open
our eyes and see the next came hole-in-one. This game was for all the teams to try. The boys were the best team in the state. The boys had finished third in their last game.

Next came the driving contest. The boys gave their best shot in this game. The first boy in the driving contest was first place. The driving contest was won by the boys in the state. The first team was the Academy boys. They failed to win the game. The second team was the All-Stars. They had won the game. The third team was the regular season. The boys had played their best game in the season.

The next game was the putting contest.
The boys gave their best shot in this game. The first boy in the putting contest was the Academy boys. They failed to win the game. The second team was the All-Stars. They had
won the game. The third team was
the regular season. The boys had played their best game in the season.

NEAR THE CAMPUS

Defeated by two novices, Elma Cluck and Amy O'Neal, Amy Callicut was selected as a Freshman. Elma Cluck and Amy O'Neal both won the game.

11-6. Among Richmond and White Smith was the Academy boys. They failed to win the game. The second team was the All-Stars. They had
won the game. The third team was
the regular season. The boys had
played their best game in the season.

The next game was the putting contest.
The boys gave their best shot in this
game. The first boy in the putting
contest was the Academy boys. They
failed to win the game. The second team was the All-Stars. They had
won the game. The third team was
the regular season. The boys had played their best game in the season.