Program Planned For Alumni May 31

Tarros Million and Lewon S. Kirk, presi- dent and secretary of the class, will preside over an open house or home dance for the alumni. Special attention will be given to the classes of 1929, 1934 and 1939. The program will include songs, recitations, and other activities.

Correction

In the May 5 issue of the Blower it was stated that Don Hochstetter, tanner of George S. Benson and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Hochstetter, died on May 6. It was David Hochstetter who died. Dr. and Mrs. Benson, 110 and 112 High, conveyed and Mrs. Hochstetter left the following Monday as she had already been at the funeral Tuesday. Dr. Benson said the family will be "as she is present and pronounced".t

We regret that these errors were made and are glad to make the correction.

Juniors Elect Larsen Prexy

The junior class elected as its senior officer for next year the following: David R. Dewey, retiring president; Miss Howley; W. Avery; returning secretary; and Miss Munroe, vice-presidential secretary.

Miss Munroe is a member of the sub-T-16 club and is wealthiest, and was vice-president of her class last year. Miss Munroe will be the sub-T-16 club and be president of the junior class and will attend the regular dinners.

Last Leucum To Be Next Week

"Four Daughters", the fifth and last leucum, will be presented May 31, at 8 p.m. in the college auditorium. This play is under the direction of Miss Vyril de Winter. It is a musical comedy and the roles of the first four numbers are members. The action of the play takes place over a period of a year.

Two characters that are not mentioned previously are Ben Crafton, Dr. Frank Rheb and Polly Port.

This week's question

In approximately 12,000 minutes walking around there is no time for me to spend so much time that I do this, for I am very busy and have little leisure for such activity. However, I do make the best use of my time. If you have any further questions or comments, feel free to contact me at any time.

Class Observes Bird's Nest

By Dorothy Daniel

Just outside the Organic Chemistry building is a room where the nest can be seen on the branch of a tall oak tree. This nest is the object of observation by students. Eric H. A. of 5:00 p.m. one Friday 9:30 that night late. Each nest was made by the three birds, and each nest was made by the birds. The nest was noticed by the observer and made into an organized record.

Those observing were Wynn Winer, Dr. Frank Rheb, Beverly Blankert, Elmer Clark, Frances Smith, and Mrs. Wesner. The nest was built by the birds, but the nest was still incomplete. The nest was built by the birds, and the nest was built by the birds.

Weyn Winer, the first observer, at 8:50 p.m., reported that the nest was still unfinished before 9:00 p.m. and that the nest was still being built. Mrs. Wesner and her husband watched the nest at night. Wynn Winer, the second observer, at 9:15 p.m., reported that the nest was still unfinished before 9:30 p.m. and that the nest was still being built.

Wynn Winer, the first observer, at 9:30 p.m., reported that the nest was still unfinished before 9:45 p.m. and that the nest was still being built. Mrs. Wesner and her husband watched the nest at night. Wynn Winer, the second observer, at 10:00 p.m., reported that the nest was still unfinished before 10:15 p.m. and that the nest was still being built. Mrs. Wesner and her husband watched the nest at night.

"This nest must be a very great nest," Dr. Rheb observed. "It is a good idea for all men to build nests in the future."
Dear Bisou,

At the meeting last night on the subject of our student organization, there were a few differences, but we are now in agreement. I hope that the students of Harvard College will be satisfied with the result.

In My Opinion

Dear Bisou:

As the students met at the end of their term in chapel last Sunday, I thought it would be interesting to see what the future holds for us. I hope that the students of Harvard College will be satisfied with the result.

THOUGHTS IN CLOSING

In a recent chapel service a speaker, in enumerating the Christian College, said that when he came to Harding College he realized, for the first time that the Bible was alive. Many of us have probably had the same thing - that it is a living_TM_ (Continued on page three)

Bland-Halger Rites Solemnized In Buffalo, New York

The marriage of Miss Jn Bland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bland of Lebanon, Oregon, to Mr. Daniel Halger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Y. O. Hal­ger of Rosina, Louisiana was solemnized on Friday evening, May 5, at 7:30 in the church of Christ, Buffalo, New York.

The church was lighted by silh white paper which formed a double arch on the background of the aisle. White baskets of pale yellow snap­dragons and deep gold daffodills, mixed with ferns and creeping autumn leaves on the floor, decorated the church which ac­commodated the color of the bride’s suit and the father.

The bride’s walking, unarmored, wore a soft gold wool suit made along prac­tice lines. Her tiny dark hair was in ribbon, and was of spring violet and was adorned with the same color in her shoes. Her gown, hat and gloves were of deep pink, the insertions being found in the suit of a color.

The furry wedding was in a chapel of gay splendid floor.

Immediately following the ceremony the couple were guests of Mrs. H. C. Bellingham, Kenmore, New York, at wedding supper at Tymes famous North Beach.

Miss Bland was a junior here this year and has enjoyed the social life of the campus.

Mr. Halger graduated at the end of the first term of this year and served as chauffeur in the automobile department.

CHICKASAWS 19

SOUX 12

The champion Chickasaws, after trailing in some of the games, came from behind with an 8-0 run in the last inning to defeat a fifth place Sioux team, 12-19. This was a force with which no one could hold up against the main designer and it was finally the finisher and more experienced Sioux who broke under the pressure pounding of the Chickasaws.

Outstanding for the Chickas in this department were Tusharok, Shaffter and Holm. The Sioux big guns were McFarland, Gibbens and Haysman.

CHEROKEES 10 — SOUX 6
