FREED-HARDEMAN COLLEGE

A FULLY ACCREDITED JUNIOR COLLEGE

HENDERSON, TENNESSEE

September 18, 1959

Mr. Johnny Chalk
2001 Division Avenue
Dayton 4, Ohio

Dear Johnny,

I am sure that you have already received my letter relative the teacher training clinic. I regret that I could not give you a better date. What was the decision of the brethren relative the dates I suggested?

I had hoped to get to see you while you were in this area.

About another matter: the church at Rector is planning to conduct a youth forum Tuesday night, Wednesday, and Wednesday night, December 22, and 23. I was thinking that perhaps you would be in Lexington during the holidays and could appear on our program. We have Dr. Benson from Harding for the final address Wednesday evening. We are hoping to have between 200 and 300 young people at the forum, and we would like very much to have you work with us as a guest speaker at one of the sessions and as a group discussion leader at all of the sessions.

We are trying to get all speakers arranged for the forum just as soon as possible, so I will appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Give our regards to Sue and we certainly hope that all is well with the two of you.

Very truly yours,

Brad Brumley
