Mr. John A. Chalk
c/o Broad Street Church of Christ
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Bro. Chalk:

I am sure that you are enjoying your work with the Broad Street Church. Many of the people there and at the other churches in Cookeville are my friends, and I know they are fine to work with.

In your work there, you probably hear about some churches near which need a preacher. I will be through at Freed-Hardeman at the last of May, and I would like to find a congregation somewhere near Cookeville to work with. I plan to attend T. P. I. next year, and I will have my schedule worked out so that I will have some days for personal work.

My home is about twelve miles from Cookeville in Jackson County, and I know many people in the vicinity of Cookeville. Since I am so far from home now, it is hard to hear of a congregation which needs a minister.

I have been closely associated with Bro. Brumley, and he suggested that you might be able to find a place for me. I have about four and one-half years of experience and have been working regularly this year with a small congregation in this county.

If you hear of any possibilities, I would deeply appreciate your letting me know or suggesting me to the brethren.

Thank you very much.

In Christian love,

Ben S. Flatt
