Directories-- Alice Ann Kellar said that the press has not started on them yet. She approved of the idea of selling advertising but that the council should check with the Administration first.

Senior Speakers-- Rod suggested that as in years past to have senior speakers in chapel--no assigned subject. Council to be thinking of suggestions for speakers. A small list of possible speakers was made at the meeting.

$5.00 for Gary Woodward--Wayne has paid.
Coffee Houses--Jim Dowdy has planned one for October 29 (pledge week). There was a suggestion to have one coffee house a month on a Friday night. Mr. Cox is to be asked to help get the Heritage for one night a week or some other arrangement for students to come and have coffee and donuts.

Student Inn--Since the Inn is not open after home games, Karen suggested that the SA provide a place (bell tower) for students to buy hot chocolate and donuts at least after the last home game. Jane will check into the possibilities of a good buy on donuts.

Homecoming--Kay listed 13 committees and their heads. She also gave the Homecoming weekend agenda. Rod will ask about the Friday night 12:00 curfew for that weekend.

Library Committee--Kay reported on the progress of this committee. She gave an itemized list of the suggestions that were approved.

Proposal--Kay made a motion that all girls should be permitted to wear slacks to Intramural games, and to the laundry. The motion was seconded and carried with unanimous approval. Danna is to add a list of reasons.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 p.m.
