Mr. Wayne Emmons
Church of Christ
Barnesville, Georgia

Dear Wayne:

The Carter family just recently returned home from a trip which they said took them into Barnesville and worship at the Church there. They spoke very highly of you, the sermon, and the work being done there. Any time the Carter's get excited about something it means that it is truly deserving of attention. They were very interested in the work you are doing there.

It would certainly be good to see you. Malcolm Hill is over in the next County holding a meeting this week. I will get to see him the latter part of the week. I go to Celina, about 40 miles from here, in September to hold a meeting where Charles Cheatham preaches. I think you will remember Charles.

I just wanted to write and say that we heard the good reports on your work in Barnesville. Best wishes to you in all your labors.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
