STUDENT ASSOCIATION MINUTES

The meeting of the S.A. was called to order at 6:05 Tuesday, November 3, 1970. A correction was made in last week's minutes: the Young American lyceum will be November 20 instead of December 20.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Social Affairs--Ferrell Drum discussed the possibility of having a coffee house this Friday night, and he asked for the Council's approval to have Kris and Dale, performers from Minnesota State. Gerald made a motion that we accept Ferrell's recommendation. The motion carried. Ferrell will call to see if we can schedule them. If so, admission to the coffee house will be 50¢ per person as the entertainment will cost $250.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Student directories--Gerald and Candy will have charge of selling the directories and calendars Thursday and Friday.

SCOPE--Gary Pack informed the Council that the SCOPE trash pick-up project has been delayed until December.

Student Center Fund--Gary checked with Rod Brewer about presenting the check for the new student center to Dr. Ganus. Gary moved that Rod present the check to the school during Lectureship Week. The motion passed. Gary will check with Dr. Ganus for the time and arrangements.

Letters--Letters concerning the proposals for 12:00 curfew for banquets, Memphis approved for club activities and dating, and the wearing of knee-knockers to club functions have been written.

Gary received a reply from the letter concerning Who's Who nominations which was written to Dr. Pryor. Dr. Pryor accepted the S.A. recommentation to distinguish S.A. nominations for Who's Who.

NEW BUSINESS

Financial Report--David gave a financial report of the S.A. budget. The balance on hand is $2,978.92. A more detailed report will be given next week.

Student Center File--John suggested that we keep a file on ideas for the new student center.

Open House--Sandy talked with Dean Lawyer and Dean Campbell about having an open house. She suggested that we schedule it for November 23. The Council felt that this would not be the best time to have it since it would be during Lectureships. Gary made a motion that we have an open house December 7 if possible. The motion carried. Candy will see about scheduling it then.

The Council adjourned at 6:40 to attend a dinner for Mayor Coffee of University Park.

Respectfully submitted,
