Dear Brother Bradfield:

I definitely think that we can have a good Alumni banquet at Cookeville. We would be able to draw several groups out of Jackson County and other areas also.

We have three possible locations. Two are at local restaurants which will seat only about 60-70 persons each. The other possibility is the Tennessee Tech Cafeteria.

All three contacts agreed that $2.00 per person would be a good figure which would allow for a good meal with good meat and all the extras. Please advise me as to which of these you think would be the best. Personally, my recommendation would be the Tech Cafeteria where the number attending would be no problem. However, I will await your choice which I hope to receive at your earliest opportunity.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
