STUDENT ASSOCIATION
MINUTES

Attendance

Present: Wayne, Kay (by phone), David, Stevie, Gerald, Karen, John, Doug

Absent: Gary, Candy, Sara, Chor Yen

Wayne called the meeting of the S.A. at 5:50, March 2, 1971. A telephone has been installed in Kay's room, so she was able to listen to the meeting over the phone.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Social Affairs--The group for the coffee house last Friday cost the S.A. $75. However, $57.46 was taken in by students who attended. There will not be a coffee house this Friday.

Cafeteria--Gerald will see that a cafeteria poll is taken soon to see if students are in favor of putting the milk machines out in the center of the Heritage cafeteria. This will mean all students will be charged 15¢ for a drink at every meal.

Lyceum--Gary has taken care of seeing that tickets, posters, and publicity has been done. Tickets probably will go on sale Friday, March 5. With I.D.'s the cost will be $8, without I.D.'s $3. The lyceum is scheduled for March 15.

OLD BUSINESS

Lyceum List--Dr. Barnes is taking care of the list to give to students in chapel to write down groups they want for lyceums.

Harding Student Hosts--John is working with Fred Alexander to organize a group of Harding Student Hosts. This will be students from the dorms who will help house visitors and show them the campus.

Book Exchange--David will see that the left-over books are boxed and sent to Galilee.

NEW BUSINESS

Breakfast--The S.A. will host a breakfast March 13 for student government leaders here for the Junior College Round-Up.

English books--several students have expressed concern over taking books off the reading list in some English courses. This will be discussed at the next meeting, and John will see Mr. Cope about the criteria used in the English Department for those books selected.

Friendly Week--The S.A. will sponsor a Friendly Week sometime in March. Definite plans will be decided upon at the next meeting. Several students have suggested that we make it a Sadie Hawkins Week.

Letter for Sidewalk--Karen will write a letter to Mr. Vines thanking him for the sidewalks which have been repaired.

Emerald Room--The Emerald Room is to be kept open all day for student use.

The council adjourned at 6:25 due to the meeting at College Church.

Respectfully submitted,

Stevie Green
