11-7-1986

Annie (1986 mailer)

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.harding.edu/theatre-history

Recommended Citation
The Harding University Departments of Communication and Music, cordially invite you to the 1986 Homecoming musical, "Annie.

Based loosely on Harold Gray's comic strip, ANNIE is the sort of wholesome family fare that Harding University is noted for providing.

It is December of 1933 and America is in the midst of the Great Depression. On the Lower East side of New York City, stands the Municipal Orphanage. This drab home is where eleven year-old Annie was left by her parents with the promise that one day they would return to get her.

Join Annie, Daddy Warbucks, Miss Hannigan, Sandy and a cast of 45 college students and 32 children, as they search for Annie's parents. Will they return for her? Does tomorrow look as bleak for Annie as it does for the nation? Will there be a New Deal for Christmas?

The answers to these questions will be revealed when ANNIE is presented on Friday, November 7 and Saturday, November 8 at 8:15 PM, in the Benson Auditorium on the Harding University campus. Tickets are only $5.00 each and may be purchased at the Benson Aud. in advance or each evening before the show. For more information call (501)268-6161 ext. 462.