STUDENT ASSOCIATION MINUTES

May 12, 1971

Attendance

Present: Wayne Dockery, Kay Smith, Stevie Green, Gary Martin, Gerald Burrow, Candy Muncy, Karen Holland, John Carr, Sara Lee, Doug Heimburger, and Dr. Jerome Barnes

Absent: David Fincher, Chor Yen Tan

The meeting of the S.A. was called to order Wednesday, May 12, 1971, at 8:30. The opening prayer was led by Phil Patton.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

Open House--The Open House which was originally scheduled for May 11 has been re-scheduled to Tuesday, May 18th.

Constitution--The S.A. will present the new S.A. Constitution to the student body on May 21 for their acceptance.

Prayer Day--an evaluation was given of prayer day, and the council discussed ways it can be improved in coming years.

Open Air Concert--Weather permitting, there will be an open air concert in front of the administration building Thursday at 6 p.m. The concert is a part of Friendly Week and will consist of various student groups.

Slacks--It was discussed at the last Student Affairs meeting that the proposal on pant suits is being misused. Girls should follow the ruling so that it will continue to exist.

Lyceums--The S.A. has a deficit of $1600 for the two popular lyceums presented this year. A chapel announcement will be made later concerning those who still need to pay for their tickets,

Travelling Singers--A singing group from Pepperdine will be on campus Monday, May 17, to perform at 7:30 p.m.

NEW BUSINESS

Installation--Wayne will check about a time to introduce the new S.A. officers in an installation ceremony in chapel.

Party for New Council--The old S.A. council will host the new council at a supper at Wyldewood Thursday, May 20.

Write-in Elections--Gary moved that the S.A. by-laws with reference to elections, read that at no time will write-in ballots be counted as votes. The motion was defeated.

The meeting next week will be Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.
The Council adjourned at 9:25.

Respectfully submitted,

S.A. Secretary

Stevie Green
