Mr. Thomas Scott
Freed-Hardeman College
Henderson, Tennessee

Dear Brother Scott:

It was an extreme pleasure to have you stop in Cookeville last week. Even though we were able to visit but a few minutes it was a real treat to me.

Please accept my apologies for being "out of pocket" and causing you to lose some time. I do hope that you made it home without any trouble.

I am writing this letter especially to thank you for taking the interest and time to stop and visit with me. Any advice you have to offer at any time will be accepted with all the gratitude of my heart. I realize so desperately my incapacibilities and shortcomings and know that the only sound help I can receive will come from men like you. I appreciate you and your abilities. It is my desire that our associations will continue on this basis throughout the coming years.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
