Radford, Virginia

Dear Brother Walker:

We were very happy to have to with us recently. I am hearing favorable reports of your message to the congregation. In my opinion your visit helped our work here as much as it will help your work there.

The Elders met last evening and decided to continue full support. It was about all they could do in view of the congregational support of the work in Radford. But things looked very good and the air has cleared considerably since you were here.

I preached a sermon last week on Christian Giving. The contribution was $531 and this past week with many members away it was $618! So I feel things are looking up in every respect. You will receive a formal letter from the elders in the next few days.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
