A regular meeting of the Student Association Executive Council was held November 28, with Tim Geary presiding. All members of the council and Dr. Barnes were present.

Student Directories-These are still available for faculty and students. Bev will see that a chapel announcement is made and make sure that someone is downstairs to hand them out Wed. and Thurs. They may also be picked up in the S.A. office anytime during office hours.

Christmas decorations-Karen was appointed chairman of this committee and will see that everything is ready for decorating the campus Thursday night at 10 p.m.

Cheerleader selection-After discussing the present method of electing cheerleaders with the Athletic Committee, the present cheerleaders, and many students, it was decided that we maintain the present procedure of a popular election, and just tighten up on enforcing the election rules.

Christmas party-The Heritage cafeteria has been reserved for 7:30 Sunday night. Hot chocolate and doughnuts will be served and the program with Randy and Jerry will begin at 8:45 in the main auditorium. Bob Helsten will be asked to serve as emcee and Doug Killgore has volunteered to play Santa Claus for the "Letters to Santa" at 8:30.

Social Affairs-Bev, Mike Justus, Dewitt, Nancy and others met with Dr. Barnes to discuss expansion of the Social Affairs committee. David Campbell, Social Affairs Chairman, is fixing up a large calendar with all the social activities scheduled for next semester and other available entertainment is being considered. It was decided to divide the work among five committees, including entertainment, food, decorations, and publicity.

Chapel program-The S.A. Council is in charge of the chapel period Dec. 8. Steve moved that Tim and Bev be co-chairmen for working on the chapel program. They will report next week.

Modern Bride Seminar-A letter from Bro. Cox was read warning students and faculty members against becoming involved with promotional type programs such as that sponsored by Modern Bride magazine on campus, November 16. The council was not aware that the program was of this type and will try to investigate more before becoming involved in anything else of this sort. Pat will also write letters to some of the other Christian colleges so that they will know what to expect if they are also approached with this kind of program.

Homecoming presentations-Mike Justus will make the awards from the Homecoming parade in chapel, Nov. 29.

Worship Service-Friendly Week is going well and worship is being planned for this Wednesday night, at 6 p.m. in the gym. Bro. Jerry Jones will be the speaker and there will be spontaneous singing.

Respectfully submitted, Pat Johnson, S.A. Sec.
