Memphis, Tennessee

Dear Brother Hardeman:

The members of this congregation are expectantly awaiting your arrival in Cookeville. We hope that you will be greeted on Sunday by one of the largest audiences of the year.

We have reserved for you and your wife a room at the Shanks Hotel. This room will be on the first floor and the proprietor has your name. We have reserved the room beginning with Friday evening but you may come on whatever day is convenient for you.

We send you our kindest regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
