Honor List Released By Dean's Office

The fall term honor list was released by the dean's office last week. The list, based on the fall term grades, listed according to their grade average.

The grade average is the total honor points divided by the hours of credit taken for that term. The highest grade average, three (3.0), is when the student has all “A” grades.

The seniors, who made an average of “A” for all grades, are Elizabeth Beaty, Vaughn Goodal, Elizabeth Bragg, Sharna Siler, Walter KIng, James Pitts, and Charles Rice. The juniors having the same average are Joseph Bryant, Ermal Catterton, and Jeannette Norris. Rodney Wald, a sophomore, and Vonda Crawford and Philip Perkins, freshmen, have the 3.0 average. A special student, Richard Horton, made an “A” average.

The honor list, divided into groups, gave the upper 15 percent, the upper 50 percent and the lower 50 percent. The honors list was given to the students with a 3.0 average; these were the seniors in the upper 15 percent: Dale Hesser, Nancy Perry, John Hadley, James Bobbitt, Don Hockaday, Jr., Delren Fontenot, Harold Wilson, Doyle Shrewsberry, Leo Campbell, and John Bolden.

Twenty-two juniors were in the upper 15 percent on the honor list. Following the students with “A” averages are Kenneth Piett, Richard Smith, William Giddeas, Ruth Bornschlegel, Alvin Moudy, Lois Bandy, Judy Miller, Richard Wallace, Fung Seng Wong, Richard Foltz, Milly Petty, Sherrill Summitt, Keith Thompson Wal­ kup, and Edna Oholendt. Due to the larger sophomore class, 26 students are in the upper 15 percent level. They are Rodney Wald, Mary Jean Godwin, Edna Earnest, William Wallace, Mac McClurg, Doris Strang, Kathy Stubblefield, Jack Oholendt, Anne Moorer, Mary Horsman, Veranne Hall, Greta Showmaker, Catherine James, Wyatt Jones, Betty Perkins, Vernon Shewmaker, Stoney Morris, and Alice Wren.

Buchanan To Speak On Teaching Problems

Logan Buchanan, who is now a preacher in Dallas, Texas, will be on the campus the week of February 5-11. While here he will conduct classes in the afternoon on the teaching problems of the future, “What we need in teaching today,” the professor will speak.

The curtain will rise Friday and Saturday, February 4 and 5, 1949, at 8 p.m. on “Glass Menagerie”, a two act comedy to be given by the Campus Players and appren­ tices. The play, written by Tennessee Williams, is now on the Broadway stage with Helen Hayes playing the leading part. “Glass Menagerie” was also chosen as the play of the month at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts.

Bill Skillman directs the following cast in its presentation: Betty Flack as Amanda Wingfield, the mother; a little woman of great but confused vitality, clinging frantically to another time and place. Lilly Warren plays the daugh­ ter, Laura. A childhood illness left her crippled.

Ernie Willkerson, her son Tom Wingfield, and the narrator of the play. He is a poet with a job in a warehouse.

Marshall McClurg, plays the gentleman caller.

Mr. Skillman listed the following committees that will assist in the production of “Glass Menagerie”: publicity-Maxine Grady, Verome Hall; Lights-Gerald Kendricks, Richard Walker; costumes-Audrey McCulley, Janie Clem; music-Marian Phillips, Ernestine Phillips; stage-manager-Dan Gar­ ner; assistants-Ab Abney, Betty Urey, Elaine Whitney; make-up-Kelth Thompson, Grover Sexson; house manager-Harold Williams; assistants-Marilyn McCullogg, Bobby Peyton, Margaret Chaffin, and Bob Bane.

Vital Speeches’ Records

Address By Benson

The best thought of the best minds on current national questions is the theme of “Vital Speeches of the Day,” a magazine published twice a month, containing the important addresses recognized leaders of pub­ lic opinion.

In the January 15 issue, is a speech delivered on December 26, 1948, over the ABC network, by Dr. George S. Benson. The sub­ ject of his speech was Federal Aid to Education.

“Federal aid to public schools is a live subject, it involves principles vital to the future of the American way of life. The real issue is not merely $300,000,000 in aid to our public schools. It is whether or not we shall take this most crucial step toward the socialization of Amer­ ican schools.”

Initial Success Of Home Study Course Announced

People in 27 states and Canada are now receiving the Harding Home Study courses. To date, over 280 copies of lesson number two have been sent, and enroll­ ment is increasing daily. Requests are coming in at the rate of six to eight a day.

According to Professor Dykes, the first responses were favor­ able and included requests for additional courses for other mem­ bers of the student’s family. Pro­ fessor Dykes said that the nature of the series of lessons, “Know Your Bible, is suitable for each member of the family.

“Additional copies of lesson number one will be sent on re­ quest as samples,” he said.

Pianist To Give Concert In Auditorium

Jonathan Bowers, a concert pianist of much renown in the field of music has been engag­ ed to appear at the Harding col­ lege auditorium in the month of February. He studied under a teacher who had been one of the last pupils of Franz Liszt and when he appeared at Carnegie Hall in New York City, the teach­ er was presented and jumped up and said, “Last liszt alive!”

HARDING COLLEGE BISON, SEARCY, ARKANSAS

FEBRUARY 1, 1949

'In Three Years'

"Actually it can never be fin­ ished," said Dr. Benson, "because of the enrollment of new students each year but within three years these objectives will be reason­ ably accomplished."

In 1938, when Dr. Benson be­ came president of Harding col­ lege, the first of four objectives was started. The initial goal was the organization of the college and the college owned on the Searey college plant. On Thanksgiving day of 1938 the mortgage was
There has been much talk on the Harding campus these last few weeks about the subject of race discrimination. It is quite understandable that such discussion should arise. Harding take place. Harding college is made up of students from most of the states in the Union as well as several foreign countries; proposed federal legislation would affect existing laws based on race; there are now a few isolated instances where some students are entering colleges and universities where they had been traditionally prohibited because of the racial group to which they belong.

It would be impossible to say much of anything about this timely question without mentioning someone's toes, but we wish to present several thoughts for your consideration concerning the race question. Hitherto, the Bison has abstained from discussing the subject, but hiding one's head in the sand will not solve existing problems.

Geneticians arbitrarily divide the species Homo sapiens into three rough groups: the Mongoloids, the Caucasoids, and the Negroids. Of course, these three groups may be broken down into smaller groups. Thus the Caucasoids, we have such diverse groups as the fair Scandinavians and the dark Italians, or in the Negroids, we have the copper skinned Polynesians and the black Papuans. So actually there can be no distinct dividing line between racial groups which we can see.

Many people say that God caused the racial groups to appear, but a careful scrutiny fails to discover any Biblical statements upholding this presumption. So there is no basis for such statements. They have quite probably occurred merely through the transmission of certain hereditary tendencies.

Why should we discriminate for or against different racial groups? In some parts of the United States, the Oriental is discriminated against; in others, the Negro. In many other places, such diverse groups as the fair Scandinavians and the dark Italians, or in the Negroids, we have the copper skinned Polynesians and the black Papuans. So actually there can be no distinct dividing line between racial groups which we can see.

We are not trying to make anyone mad, or cause more hurt among different races, or among ourselves, for that manner. We merely hope for greater understanding of all the points involved. Independent and clear thinking will accomplish this; nothing else.

OF THE WEEK

What is the first thing about a boy that impresses you most?

Joe Flynn: It's his manners and his speech, looks don't count.

Alice Straughn: His height and the look in his eyes.

Eunice Shermer: His appearance as much as his personality.

Evelyn McCaughey: His height.

Jane Clem: The way he shakes your hand.

Veranne Hall: Whether he is neat or sloppy.

Alice Anne Hawkins: If he takes my coat and pulls out my chair when I am eating with him. (Editor's note: How does she mean that?)

Audrey Sheaffer: The way he is dressed, if the colors he wears clash or not; and if he keeps his hair combed.

Robert Cohea: Their eyes I guess, if they can look at you when they talk.

LaVera Novak: General appearance, whether he is neat or not; and his personality.

Katie Hollingsworth: I don't know, its been so long since I've noticed any new he impressed.

Liz Russell: How they act and talk, by that I mean their use of grammar.

Maya White: Whether or not he is courteous, or just careless.

Betty Kell: You mean they impress people?

La Rae Campbell: Well, the thing that impresses me most is whether or not they help me with my tray and pull out my chair.
Rain, Ice, Snow, Sunshine, . . . What Next?

Rain, Ice, snow, sunshine. What other kinds of weather are there? If the saying, “Variety is the spice of life,” is true, well, we’ve just about been “spiced” to death.

All in all, however, it’s been fun . . . all except the rain. When rainy weather gets to be fun, this will be the funniest place I’ve ever been.” But back to the real fun and snow. There hasn’t been so much screaming, laughing, face washing and such at Harding, as there has been since Sunday, in a long time.

The “Snow Party” in front of Godden Hall Sunday night was the elite occasion of the snow season. Sliding, music over the loud speaker, and all, really put pep back into all the students.

The “Snow Party” really continued all day Monday and Monday night. Old and young, fat and skinny, all received their share of the snow fights. One thing good about snow there’s no such thing as a “respector of persons” everyone gets it.

As if it were just for us, the sunshine Monday made it a perfect “picture taking” day. All the students from the North can send pictures home of the real snow in Arkansas. Maybe it wasn’t as much, as they have at home, but I don’t imagine they enjoy it there as much as we do here. Ah, maybe it’ll snow again sometime.

Dan Collins Wins $110

On “Double or Nothing”

Dan Collins, Harding College senior, won $110 on the “Double or Nothing” radio quiz show Tuesday, January 25, from 1:00-1:30 p. m. His question, which wasn’t answered by the contestant, was “What southern state was the first to be re-admitted to the union after the Civil War?” Mr. Collins said the answer was Tennessee and the source—“The Encyclopedia Britannica, I think, because the Americans didn’t think it was important enough to even include it.”

Mr. and Mrs. Collins were listening the Tuesday afternoon his question was read. They admitted they became very excited when they heard it and said almost simultaneously, “We just couldn’t believe it.”

BENSON REVEALS PLANS—

In 1940, with the debt off, the college undertook to raise the salaries for teachers, a very essential objective. The college has raised wages to an extent that salaries have been trebled and quadrupled since that date. Presentation for admission into North Central Accrediting Association was started in 1945. In attempting to reach this objective, one and one-half million dollars were solicited for the building program, the academic work of the students was raised, and the number of instructors with doctors and masters degrees were increased. The completion of this project only awaits acceptance by the North Central Association.

“The last words of Harding college a number one good Christian college, housed in a number one good college plant,” Dr. Benson concluded.

Lloydene Sanderson, Betty Lou Thornton, Johnny Brown, Alfred Lottridge, Jessie Smith, Eunice Shewmaker, Earnest Phillips, James Massey, Lawrence Roberts, Max Vaughn, Mattie Green, Marilyn Evans, Dawn Lee, Jo Delton Betts, Velma Williams, Audrey McGuire, and Carolyn Hovey.

The three special students in the upper 15 per cent are Marian Horton, Nelda Horton and Vannda Friddie. There were 20 special students enrolled last year.

Surveying the field of honor students there are 97 which are listed in the upper 15 per cent. Of these 13 have an average of “A.” The lowest average in the upper 15 per cent is 2.05.

Think On These Things...
by Victor Broadus

PATIENCE

"Our patience will achieve more than our force." Perhaps on the surface, this statement by Edmund Burke may seem a little impractical. Yet to the mind that will think through the thought, it will readily be seen that this is true. Life presents many obstacles for man to observe in order that he may be able to grow in wisdom and understanding. True, these obstacles require strength of character and will. Often this strength is given the mistaken idea that it means only the stubborn will of a man to push ahead regardless of cost to himself or to others. Force will enable us to gain certain ends; yet these ends are few, and minor in comparison to many others.

Patience, perhaps is truly the most difficult exercise of the mind and will and is the greatest test--for the overcoming of life's problems. Howell has said that "Patience is a flower that grows not in every garden." To the American public in this fast age, patience certainly has become a rare thing, and the deep enjoyment of life that comes from careful, thoughtful consideration of others is almost unknown.

Patience is a prerequisite to a personal satisfaction and happiness. Jesus Christ was right when he made the statement in Luke 21:19, "In your patience ye shall win your souls." Taking these admonitions then, let us think on these things and really get something out of this life.

The faculty members of our school are remarkable. They are not only good at teaching in the classroom and working with us personally, but they are outstanding in other fields as well. One of these fields is writing. The library has recently received a copy of THE TEACHING OF RELIGION IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS by Dr. F. W. Mattox. This book was recently reviewed by Dr. J. D. Bales, an accomplished writer and critic and has just been published by George Peabody College for Teachers. This contribution to education is Dr. Mattox's Ph. D. dissertation. It presents the case, pro and con, for the teaching of religion in the public schools of America. The decline of the religious influence in American life, and the secularization of the American school has raised deep moral questions which the Christians as well as non-christians recognize must be satisfactorily solved if civilization is to continue. This book is recommended to all who are interested in the question as to what part religion and the public schools can play in meeting these issues. This is the fourth book to be published by Harding teachers since school began in September. At least three others are in some stage of preparation for publishing.

M. E. A.'s Have Dinner At Judsonia Hut

The M. E. A.'s and their dates left the campus Saturday evening, January 22, for a party in the Legion Hut in Judsonia. The group went to Judsonia in the college bus.

The menu consisted of fried chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, peas, banana salad, pecan pie and ice cream. The unusual thing about the party is that the boys helped prepare the dinner. After the dinner a variety of table and party games were played by all.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Greg Rhodes and Jackie.

Club members and their dates were: Vaughnne Bragg, Jack Parker; Ludene Slatten, Al Bryant; Neda Olbricht, George Sours; Clementine Pound, Glimma Grice; Velda Turner, Harold Wilson; Wonda Gifford, Howard See; Johnnie Neil Ray, Clifford Buchanan; Marie Massey, Joe Betts; Beth Howe, Jimmy Cureton; Gloria Fulgrum, Coy Campbell; Audrey McGuire, Kenneth Istre; Nelda Chesshir, Roger Hawley; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Campbell; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Collins; and Mr. and Mrs. Andy T. Ritchie. Mrs. Ritchie is the club sponsor.

LaCourse's Entertain In Home With Taffy Pull

Mr. and Mrs. Dougias LaCourse entertained guests in their home Saturday night with a taffy pull. Those present were Sybil Bennett, Paul Williams; Wilma Rogers, Don Hockaday; Barbara Cash, Steve Eckstein; Dorothy Welsh and John Brown. Those who had never pulled taffy before were properly initiated and handed a rope of taffy to pull. In a taffy pull there are two possibilities, pull or get stuck up.

High School Gives Farewell Party

Approximately 40 high school students gathered in the choral studio Saturday night at 7:30 to honor Jo Ann Allen with a going-away party. The main event of the evening was a taffy pull. After the taffy pull they played Truth or Consequences, Spin the Bottle, and played popular records. As a goin-away gift the group gave Jo Ann a leather hat box. Nelda Chesshir and Rodger Hawley were sponsors.

China Club Meets In Benson Home

Members of the China Club were entertained in the Benson home Thursday, January 27. Those present were Teet Pei Lueng, Victor Broaddus, Mae Webb, Lois Benson, King Tao Zee; Trice Taylor, Betty Thornton, Tommy Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Dungan Jeu, and Carl Schwemfurth.

Mrs. Benson served tea, cookies, cured pumpkin seeds and walnuts, which is a Chinese delicacy.

CAMPUS VISITORS

Betty Jo Thompson visited the campus last week. Betty is a former Harding student.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Longshore and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Tompkins and daughter Alma, of Oak Ridge, Tenn. visited the campus. Alma Tompkins is planning to enter the Harding Academy.

Miss Rosemary Pledger, graduate of 1947, was on the campus Friday visiting friends. Rosemary is teaching school at Mars Hill Bible school at Florence, Ala.

Profit Glenn Boyd tells the one about two fellas on a motorcycle who got cold and put their jackets on backwards. They had an accident and ran into a truck. Later on, the driver was telling friends about it and said, "Well, one of them was already dead by the time I got the others. I wanted to know if a basketball coach had four wheels or two?"

Credited — Did you ever hear about the wife of a bus driver who wanted to know if a basketball coach had four wheels or two?

Broke — It seems that there were two fellas who killed a guy and didn't know what to do with him. They went to a bar that was near by to figure things out and took the body with them. They sat him up at the table and ordered drinks for all three. The bartender came over and asked the fellas sitting there who was to pay the bill. The guy didn't say anything so the bartender hit him one across the head. The two other men ran up then and said, "Oh, you've killed him!" The waiter said, "Well, I couldn't help it, he pulled a gun on me!"

Deficit — Yesterday morning at the breakfast table Bob Roe was sitting there with a very sleepy countenance and I said, "Good Morning!" He looked at me with half-open eyes and replied, "Who ever you are ... Good morning to you, too."

Counterfit — Ted Diehl said that it was so crowded at the movie in Inner Sanctum that Jimmie Mooneyham gave him a Toni by mistake and he never did find out who he was.

Liquid Funds — Sunday afternoon, Dale Todd and I were walking around the rim of the fishpond and he remarked that I sure would look funny if I fell in the fishpond and guess what. Yep, I fell in ... feet first.

Spend — Dr. Kern said that one of his students came to class all banged up and he asked what was the matter. "Well, my mother was afraid that I would get hurt playing basketball and football so I enrolled in Chemistry and look what happened." That ain't the half of it.

Debate Teams To Meet in Mid-South Tournament

A junior and senior debate team will compete for honors at the Mid-South tournament at Conway, on Friday and Saturday, February 11 and 12.

"This is expected to be one of the largest Mid-South tournaments ever held," stated Mr. Stillman, the coach of the teams.

Names of those who will participate in the tournament have not yet been announced.

Chinese Student Arrives From Hong Kong Thurs.

Teet Fei Leung, from Canton, China, arrived on the campus last Thursday morning. Teet Fei is the son of Mr. Hoi Kit Leung, dean of the Canton Bible school. Teet Fei came to San Francisco on the steamer General Meigs, and from there to Fort Worth, Texas, by plane. He came by train to Little Rock, where he was met by Mrs. Benson and Gregg Rhodes.

Teet Fei lived with the Benson family while they were in China in 1936. Before entering Harding as a student, Teet Fei will study English here for several months.

Large Chorus To Present Annual Spring Concert

In an interview with director Andy T. Richie, Jr., Professor Ritchie stated that he believed that "the students were showing a renewed interest in the large chorus." The group meet regularly in the choral studio on Thursday nights. Two new risers were made and old ones repaired to equip the large chorus.

Professor Ritchie believes that the large chorus has possibilities of presenting some fine musical programs to Harding students.

Professor Ritchie is planning a spring concert for the large chorus.

Hogs Hand Buffs
Fourth Loss 43-40

Led by the consistent plugging of Norman Starling, Tommy Richeson, and Dean Askcraft, the Hogs outlasted a hard scrapping Buff team, 43 to 40. During the opening quarter, the Hogs went out front by virtue of eight points but failed to hang on to the lead during the next two frames as Ronald Smith hit 22 points to sparkplug his team. However, this was not enough as the Hogs were stimulated to better performance after seeing their lead whittled down and went out to score the Buffs in the final quarter thirteen to ten.

Clark Scores 25,
Leads Robins Past
Academy 42-36

In a hard fought game all the way, a surpising Robin team remained the only undefeated team in the minor league by downing Academy quintet with a score of 42 to 36.

W. B. Clark was the high scorer of the game as he racked up a total of twenty five points. It was he that started the Robins off to such a flashing opening as he hit the loop six times, to enable them to move out front by a double count of 18 to 9, in the first quarter. This period proved to be the determining part as both teams matched points throughout the remainder of the contest.

Frogs Hop Over Buffs
Downing Them 64-37

The favored frogs won their first game as they beat the Buffs 64-37. This is the second loss for the Buffs putting them in the cellar. The Frogs played well against the Buffs and may prove hard to beat. Groover, Jackson, and Allen set the plays for the Frogs and Ken Istre did a good job of rebounding.

Bears Click, Win
From Buffs 52-40

Led by a sharp-shooting attack and a well functioning defense, a smooth operating Bear team downed a scrapping Buff combination 52 to 40 in one of the hardest fought games of the season.

At the end of the opening quarter, the Buffs held a four point lead largely due to the accuracy of Ronald Smith and Joe "pistol shot" Webb. However, the Bears came rolling back to notch the count at the half as Gene Mowrer found the range for four field goals. This low end of the score motivated the Bears once again as they took the most aggressive phase and moved out front. They maintained the lead throughout the remainder of the game.
