Mrs. Walter Ferrell
Route 1
Baxter, Tennessee

Dear Sister Ferrell,

I would like to take this opportunity to commend you for your willingness to confess your wrongs before God and ask his forgiveness. We are very happy to have people of your determination associated with our work here at Broad Street. Please accept my personal commendation for your concern about spiritual matters.

Enclosed you will find an information sheet which we hope you will fill out and return to the Church office. This information will be used in a membership directory that we are planning to publish in the near future. Your co-operation in this matter will be deeply appreciated.

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk
