Dear Sister Exum:

Since I did not know the man in question in your letter, it took sometime to learn of his situation. His parents live in Algood, Tenn and are distressed about his spiritual condition. He has been divorced for a few months, but separated for several years. The Wife obtained the divorce on the ground of non-support. She is a member of the Church.

I hope these matters will aid you in properly advising your daughter. Please bear in mind that it is not my intention to interfere, but rather to provide you with the facts in the matter. I trust that you will use these matters with discretion when advising your daughter.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
