STUDENT ASSOCIATION EXECUTIVE COUNCIL MEETING

The regular meeting of the Student Association Executive Council was held Monday, February 11, 1974 with Mike Justus presiding. The meeting was called to order at 5:25 p.m. beginning with a prayer led by Darrell Bruning.

PRESENT: Mike Justus, Phil Herrington, Elaine Shipp, Becky Cochran, Dan Daniel, Mark McInteer, Brenda Dimitt, Lot Therrio, Darrell Bruning, Lee Trotter, Dr. Jerome Barnes, Ben Sims, Jeff Blake, Sam Yeager, Randy Kirby.

ABSENT: David House, Michele Pullara.

RELIGIOUS SURVEY: The council agreed that results of the religious survey should be sent to the Bible Department, the faculty, College Church, Religious Affairs Committee, and the Bison.

ACCIDENT: The money has been given to Ed Chesler; it was a sufficient amount.

APPRECIATION PARTIES: The first appreciation party is to be in honor of the Bison Band, Swim team, Basketball team, Bisomettes, and Cheerleaders. Becky moved that the SA adopt the appreciation party as a project and host it on February 27. The motion was seconded and carried. Becky and Brenda will organize this party.

WORK PARTY: Pam Hoggard is going to organize the work party at which Wyldewood banners are to be made for the student center. She will meet with Elaine this Wednesday to finalize plans.

CAFETERIA LINES: Posters have not as yet been made for the cafeteria. In addition to trying to get posters to discourage breaking in line Dan moved that Nancy be in charge of a skit to be performed in chapel which would emphasize not breaking in line in the cafeterias. The motion was seconded and carried.

LYCEUM: Dr. Barnes reported that the Vogue's were well received Saturday night. They brought in the amount of money which the Lyceum committee was anticipating.

TERRY SMITH: Terry will be speaking in the gym Wednesday, February 13. Steve Tucker has had materials printed to advertise this service. Brenda moved that a person be appointed and given a committee to investigate the possibility of having cokes and pop corn in the gym on Wednesday night. The motion was seconded and carried. Dan will ask if we can use the concession stand facilities in the gym. Becky and Nancy will work with serving the refreshments.

CONVOCATION: Donuts and juices will be served in Pattie Cobb Friday morning until 9:00 a.m. Tags announcing the Convocation will be out Wednesday. Camelot will be the SA movie shown Thursday night at 9:45 p.m.

BENEVOLENT COMMITTEE: Kathy Lewis and Suzie Carey have agreed to work on this committee.

PHYSICAL PLANT: Nancy talked with Mr. Tucker about the suggestions which had been referred to her. He said that the city will not let us put speed breakers in front of the student center to make pedestrian travel safer. He said that nothing can be done about the furniture in the student center until new furniture has to be purchased. The heating situation in the Married Students' Apartments is being investigated.

RIDE BOARD: Lot said that the ride board will be ready for use by spring break.

COMPUTER DATING: Jeff Blake reported that the computer has already been programmed for the dating game. The cost will be approximately 15c per person. The results will be individually sent through campus mail. Brenda and Lee will work with Jeff in getting the project publicized.

OPEN HOUSE: Nancy, Lee, and Lot will talk with the deans about approving a date for open house.

COLLEGE CHURCH BULLETIN: The bulletin is being reasoned for greater efficiency. Mr. Lawson asked the council to recommend someone to report religious activities on campus. Chuck Henton was nominated to fill this position.

CHILDREN OF MARRIED STUDENTS: The married students would like to have a letter written to Mr. Tucker asking that their children be admitted on the parent's Harding I.D. card.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:03 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Elaine Shipp, SA Secretary
