The second Freedom Forum now being held at Harding college has 47 men enrolled representing 29 industries from 12 states, announced Dr. George S. Benson, president of Harding College. The forum is a seminar in Americanism for industry, runs from April 25 through April 29.

Four students from Harding college were selected to attend the freedom forum, representing their respective classes. The representatives are Bill Handy, junior; Russell Handy, senior; Ted Diehl, sophomore; and Phil Perkins, freshman. The Harding academy will send one different representative to perspective classes. N.T.S.C. Chor Presents Concert Here Tonight

The North Texas State college a capella choir will present a concert of varied types of choral music in the college auditorium tonight. Thirty-eight vocalists from five states are members of the choir. Among them is Jean Harrison, soprano, of Searcy.

Frank McKinley, is a product of the famed Westminster Choir. When at Westminster he did a great deal of work in church music. After receiving his master of music degree in 1946 he accepted a position at North Texas State as director of the Chapel Choir and as a voice instructor until 1942, when he entered the service. During the war he served as warrant officer in administration work in Thirteenth Army Corps headquarters in the U. S. England, France, Belgium, Holland, and Germany.

After his discharge in 1946 he accepted a position as associate professor and director of music at Kentucky Wesleyan college in Winchester, Ky. In 1947 he joined the NTSC School of Music once again and has been in the baton of the a capella choir.

Under his direction the choir has presented numerous concerts through the states and is making an extensive tour from April and covering Texas, Oklahoma, Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, and Arkansas.

Entrants Announced For Bison Oratorio Contest

The following people will be in the preliminaries of the Bison Oratorio Contest, April 27 and 29: Bill Hunnicutt, Keith Thompson, Murray Watson, Bob Rue, Victor Bronkda, Dick Smith, Johnny Clark, and Johnny Brown. Betty Thornton and Margie Groover, in the Girl's Division, will not be in the preliminaries but in the finals to be held next week, May 1 to 7.

The preliminaries will be held at 8:35 in Room 112 of the administration building. Faculty members including Bill Skillman and Eileen Sauer will be the judges.

The annual May Day festivities at Harding will be held this Friday afternoon at five o'clock, announced Margie Lee, president of the Jr. Go Ju social club.

The annual May pole winding and crowning of the Queen of May will be held in the front lawn of the campus. The identity of the Queen will be revealed at 7:30 in the audience building. The crowning of the Queen will be preceded by the presentation of the May Queen's crown, a gift of the Jr. Go Ju social club.

Those wishing to be considered for next year's editor and business manager of the Bison should turn in their application to Prof. Neil B. Cope by Tuesday, May 3, at five p.m.

Applicants must bring their resumes and place in a sealed envelope. They will not be opened until the group meets for selection.

The previous Bison work is not a prerequisite. All experience and qualifications should be included in the application.

'Thrill of Infallibility' Listed in Ten Important Reprints

"Infallibility of the Church," a book by George Salmon and reprinted by James D. Bales, head of the Harding Bible department, has been listed as one of the ten most significant reprints of the year. The "Gideon" magazine, a monthly published at Chicago, Ill., carried the list of the ten significant reprints of the year in the April issue. The books were selected by Carl F. H. Henry, Professor of Theology and Philosophy of Religion, in the Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, Calif.

The book, first printed in 1888, has undergone four reprints, the fourth being by Dr. Bales. Its case against papal infallibility has never been answered, said Mr. Henry.

Junior-Senior Banquet At Rendezvous Thursday

The senior class will have the guests of the juniors at the annual Junior-Senior banquet on April 28 at 7:00 p.m.

The banquet will be given in the banquet room of the Rendezvous, stated Eddie Baggett, president of the junior class.

The theme for the afternoon section discussion groups was "Encroaching Socialism.

Economic Education

"Economic Education in the Plant" is the theme for April 27. Mr. Robert Canniff, director of advertising and public relations of Servel Incorporated, will present "A Case History," and Mr. Ken Wells, director of the Freedom Forum, will speak about "The Leadership Team: Foreman to President." Mr. George Rideout will have a question period concerning "Freedom Information, Please." Mr. Rideout will be in on the Harding college department of national education staff.

Moses To Speak

The third phase to be covered by the forum is "Economic Education in the Community," on April 28. Mr. Carl Nater, executive assistant to the president of Harding, will discuss, "The Motion Picture - A Potent Aid to..." (Continued on page 3)
Welcome, Forum Delegates!

This week the second Freedom Forum is being held at Harding college. We wish to welcome the delegates for this forum to our campus.

It is our hope that the activities scheduled for this week will be informative and interesting for all the delegates. Everything from films made by Harding college to a faculty-forum baseball game is on the list of activities.

It is our belief at Harding that the great cure for all the ills of this modern world is a basic belief in the teachings of Christ. If everyone were to follow the teachings of the Bible, there would be no dictatorships, wars, hatreds, or any other of the curses of our modern society.

It is not just the principles of Americanism that is the best for a better world, but the moral teachings of Christ which underly those principles.

We hope that the associations brought about by these forums will be beneficial for both the forum delegates and those of us at Harding.

Congrats, Frosh!

We wish to take this opportunity to congrat­ulate Jimmy Massey, Betty Thornton, and their frosh staff who put out the excellent edition of the Bison last week. The color of the paper did not for subscribers.

The Coming Operetta

Creatures of Impulse is not a very well known operetta. Perhaps this is due to the fact that being one of Gilbert's minor masterpieces and written before his collaborations with Sir Sullivan it has been neglected. It had never been set to music so Don Phillips and Edward Stashoff set about to do just that. In a few anthologies there can be found a brief opening chorus, a finale briefer still, and the song about the King's Hussars. Donald Phillips did the rest of the music. Stashoff expanded it by the addition of fuller and additional lyrics, an occasional scene and the provision of bits of business here and there.

The group who have been chosen to work in the operetta are finding it a great deal of fun. The music and plot keeps them laughing at all times. Of course some of the music is quite tricky and the group finds it difficult, but all in all, they think it is going to be a worthwhile project.

Think On These Things...

by Victor Broaddus

A minister of the Gospel in London one day went to the photographer's to have a portrait made of himself. When the photographer asked how the minister should pose, the minister said, "a solemn look please." At this the minister broke into laughter and asked the man why he should look solem. The minister replied, "Happy is the man that find­eth wisdom" (Prov. 3:13) and "Whoso trusteth in Jehovah, happy is he." (Prov. 16:20)

Happiness is expressed in many ways. In fact, it is doubtful that happiness is ever isolated to one individual but rather it is shared by at least one other and possibly many others as well. It expresses itself in being helpful to others, which in turn creates a higher degree of happiness. It also expresses itself by laughing. As Josh Billings humorously put it "Laffing is the sensation of pheeling good all over, and showing it principally in one spot." One thing is certain, although happiness may not express itself in helping others, or in laughing, it certainly will radiate from the face. As J. M. Good put it, "It is a running stream, and not a stagnant pool. One cannot keep it penned up.

Happiness is essential for the well-being of all mankind, so let us try to cultivate more of it in our lives and actions now, that it may grow and shelter others later.

Laugh and the world laughs with you. Weep and you weep alone.

For the sad old earth must borrow its light.

But has trouble enough of its own.

—Ella Wheeler Wilcox

Here and There

Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Smith, from Paragould visiting on the campus Wed­nesday. Mrs. Smith is the former Emma Geer. Bill is preaching for the church in Paragould. With the Smith's was Ray Herren, a senior in the Para­gould high school.

On the campus Tuesday afternoon was Bill Smith, who is now preaching in Currithsville, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. McNell, and children Doyce and Sandra, from New­ton, Texas were on the campus Friday with daughter Duverge.

Sammie Swim, who in now preach­ing in Jasper, Texas, visited the camp­us Friday.

How does it seem to have only six weeks of school left?

Charles Billingsley: It's exceedingly fine. I wish we didn't have to anymore now.

Don Killebrew: It's going to have its drawbacks.

Lela Rae McAdams: Nice, in a way.

Glena Fay Grice: In some ways it seems very good, but in other ways not so good.

Willburn Rainey: For me it's only the end of another term and the begin­ning of another.

Pry Davidson: Six weeks is a long time to wait to go fishing.

Verl Falls: Who says six weeks? I have three years before I finish.

Adam C. Melton: After staying out of school twelve years, six weeks seems a short time. I'm thinking of my school work in terms of thirty more months.
Omega Phi’s Present Banner

Betty Davidson presented the school banner to President Benson in chapel on Saturday, April 16.

The design consisted of a shield on which is displayed an open Bible surrounded by a laurel wreath. Under the shield is inscribed the motto, “Liberty is Found in Doing Right.”

Three Harding Music Students Win Awards At Annual Music Meet

Two Harding Academy students and one student from Searcy High School were winners of Certificates of Merit at the high school music clinic held at the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville April 16-18. They were Martha Woody, a soprano, sang “In the Boat” by Greig, and “Morning” by Speaks.

Bill Summitt gave two violin solos, “Minuet in G” by Beeethoven, and “Hungarian Dance” by Rasche.

Miss Mims, a soph., at Searcy high school played “F-Minor” by Bach, and Polanaise, Op. 53” by Chopin.

Carroll Eades, who also attended the clinic sang “Trade Winds” by Keel, and “Passing By” by Purcell.

Credit—Well, here I is back as corny as ever... By the way, I am sending a capsule of cyanide in the mail to each of you contributors to the slaughter of my beautiful column.

Greenback—As Susie Shawberger was “parked” in front of a light in her new 1950 Buick, an officer drove up and said, “Well, say, it ain’t gonna get any green-er”. I bet she couldn’t have gotten any redder either.

Check—Heard in Physics class just before exam. “What is it?” “Why, that is what the cat does when he wants to get in”....

Cold Cash—Quote Marilyn Straughn: “A man lay by the sewer And by the sewer he died. They couldn’t call it murder So they called it sewer-side”.

Pay Dirt—Peggy Ferguson tells the one about a little boy watching the ditch-diggers outside the house and said to his mother, “Ma, look at them then bow-legged men”. His mother grabbed a book of Shakespeare and told him to correct his English. In an hour, he was back at the window and came forth with this “Mother, what manner of men are these, who wear their legs in parentheses”.

Receipt—As a joke, Bob Morris bought Dale Todd a piece of toast with “Glasswax” on it. Dale said, “Well, who do you think I am, Author Godfrey?”

Note—Dr. Frank Rhodes is always good for a couple of chuckles. He gave a pop quiz in his Revolutionary History class and said, “Any resemblance between the lesson and that test was purely coincidental”. At the next lecture, he said, “Today we will have the Reign of Terror...Oh—yes, we had that last time, didn’t we?”

Audit—In Professor Skillman’s speech class, students were discussing Prose and Poetry and Keith Thompson said that Miss Crittenden had tried to sell some free verse. “Why pay for it, if it’s free”...was the punch line.

Dean Releases Honor List For Winter Term

The honor list for the winter term was released by the dean's office last week. This list has each student listed with his grade average. The students are divided into the upper 15 percent, the upper 50 percent, and the lower 50 percent.

The average of each student's grade is found by dividing the honor points by the term hours. The highest average is three (3.0) received when the student makes all "A" grades.

Fourteen honor students were listed in the winter term. The seniors are Richard Baggett, James Bobbitt, John Bolden, Vaughnne Bragg, and James Pitts. Jeanette Norris, Kenneth Plety, and Eleanor Willbanks are the honor juniors; in the sophomore class are Rue Porter Rogers and Doris Straughn; freshmen are Vonda Gifford, Ida Piety, and Lou Ellen Manker; and Tommy Clark is the honor student of the special students.

Students in the upper 15 percent of their class will be listed. Honor students will be omitted from this second list and the highest average will be listed first and continue with decreasing averages.

Nineteen seniors in the upper 15 percent of their class are: Harold Wilson, Dale Hesser, Johnnie Nell Ray, John Hadley, Doyle Swain, Kenneth Brady, Steve Eckstein, Norma Foresee, Charles Rice, Leo Campbell, Gloria Fulghum, Derlen Fontenot, Mary Fisher, and Judy Miller.

Twenty students for the junior class are: Jack Oholendt, Richard Walker, Joseph Bryant, William Wallace, Lester Perrin, Kathryn Shulie, Opal Simpson, Hollis Elliott.

Mary Kay Hollingsworth, Bill Williams, Ermal Catterton, Charles Brown, Robert Hare, Wesley Howk, Lois Benson, M. T. Bishop, and Sue Hogg.

Twenty-three students are in the upper 15 percent in the sophomore class. They are Veranne Hall, Betty Perkins, Greta Shewmaker, Jack Plummer, Margie Groover, Edna Earnest, Vernie Shrabie.

Mary Jean Godwin, Marilyn Christian, Louise Zinser, Wanda Wallis, Mary Engles, Randel Blankenship, Rodney Wald, George Pledger, Mary Bell Horman, Thomas Olbricht, Anne Moor, James Bensol, John Mengelberg, Mary Sue Sanders. The freshmen class have 29 in the upper 15 percent because of the size of the class. The students are Phil Perkins, Claude Heffington, Ernestine Phillips, Shirley Pegan, Neil Faulkner, Murriel Bush, Betty Thornton, Max Vaughan, Julia Ann Houser, Ruby McReynolds, Robert Sewell, Alice Straughn, Vera Young, Wanda Greene, John Humphries, Johnny Brown, Joe Betts, Florence White, Mazie Whitehouse, Mattie Geer, Harry Otree, James Bridgeman, Lawrence Roberts, Etta Madden, Jo Rene Reaves, and D. A. Geraldine Ellis. Special student, Mary Drez and May White, are in the upper 15 percent.

Students may classify themselves in the upper or lower 50 percent of their class by placing themselves in the proper class average. Averages for the seniors in the upper 50 percent are above 1.77; juniors, 1.50; sophomores, 1.37; and freshmen, 1.29; and special students to 1.26. Students below these averages...
Academy Downs Pebs 9-8 For First Win

The Academy, stinging from their loss to the Chicks, slugged the Pebs for their first win of the season. They began their bid for victory with their first batter, Eades, who promptly slammed a triple to left field. However, the next two men were retired and the Pebs took over. They were put down in order by some crack field work.

The Pebs came to life in the fourth but just couldn't go ahead as the academy added three in that frame.

Eades and Summitt led the high school in hitting with 3 and 2 hits each. Werner and Burl were heavy in this department getting a round tripper and two safeties respectively.

Nichols rocked along smoothly for five straight innings without any trouble, allowing only three men to get on base and two were by errors of his teammates. In the sixth inning "Gibby" Bullington, with a full count on him, lined a sharp single into right field for the "Pirates" only hit. Bullington was also the only man to reach second during the game.

The battery for the Dodgers was Jimmie Allen and Joe Nichols with 3 out of 4 hits and Allen collecting 3 R.B.I.'s.

Giant s Out-Hit Cards
11-4 For Second Win
In a game that turned into a slug­ging duel, the Giants came through with their second win of the season. Both pitchers went the route. Ganus allowing only 6 hits while Curtis was clipped for 14.
Curtis led his team in batting with 2 for 5. Joe Webb hit 3 for 4 to lead the Giants. He was fol­lowed by Ganus, Hare, and Tucker with 2 for 4 each.

Giants Defeat Braves
By Slim 7-6 Margin
After scouring six times dur­ing the first two innings, and pushing across another in the sixth, the Giants held on to a slim margin over the scrapping Braves 7 to 6.
Barton and Webb led their forces in the hitting department as they accounted for two hits apiece. Max Vaughn, clouted a round tripper in the first inning as he lifted one of Wright’s pitch­ers over the right field hedge to take the distance laurels.
The Braves scrapped back desperately only to have the rally fall short by one run. Their big inn­ing came in the sixth when they pushed across four counters. Norman Starling sparked their fight by rapping out a double and tri­ple.
Eugene Mowrer went the dis­tance for the Giants. But Mowrer had to come to the relief of Lloyd Wright in the third.
