The regular meeting of the Student Association Executive Council was held Monday, April 1, 1974 with Mike Justus presiding. The meeting was called to order at 5:20 p.m. beginning with a prayer led by Phil.

PRESENT: Mike Justus, Phil Herrington, Elaine Shipp, David House, Dan Daniel, Mark McInteer, Brenda Dimitt, Lot Therrio, Nancy Cochran, Lee Trotter, Michele Pullara, Darrell Brunning, Dr. Jerome Barnes, Ben Sims, and Gloria Burch.

ABSENT: Becky Cochran.

PARKING REGULATIONS: Dan has investigated the situation concerning the 30 minute parking limit in front of the Heritage. He reported that this is under the regulations of the city. He volunteered to go and talk with the city officials concerning the matter.

BANNERS IN THE STUDENT CENTER: All the materials for the banners has been purchased the the letters to go on the banners are half completed. They will be finished before school is out for use this summer and next year.

OPEN HOUSE: Lee reported that open house is April 1 and 2.

LETTERS: Michelle has heard no response concerning the letter to Dr. Ganus concerning the breakfast in Patti Cobb during convocation. The letter concerning lyceums which Darrell wrote has been received by Dr. Moore. It will be discussed in the next committee meeting.

CHESS TOURNAMENT: The brackets have been posted downstairs. Chapel announcements will also be made. David was placed in charge of obtaining a trophy to be on display in the student center.

PHYSICAL PLANT: The ping pong room is in good shape and curtains have been hung in Harbin's TV room.

STUDENT CENTER TELEVISION ROOM: After checking into the situation the council agreed the problem has improved. The council discussed the need for trash containers for the TV room. David moved that the council purchase trash containers and that an announcement be made in chapel urging the students to use them. The motion passed.

ZAMBIA PROGRAM: Over $12,007 was collected Sunday for the work in Zambia. Lott suggested we dismiss the idea he and Coach Sharp had discussed. The council agreed that the students had given generously and would like to take this opportunity to thank them for their response.

ELECTIONS: Nancy moved that an election rally be held April 9 on the front lawn and that ice cream be served. The motion was seconded. The motion was amended to read April 8, Monday. It was seconded and the amended motion carried.

TRACK AND FIELD DAY: Lott moved that the council serve strawberries and ice cream on Wednesday, April 17 after early church. The motion passed. Mark and Lott are to talk to Mrs. Hart and Yarnells.

CANCER SOCIETY PROJECT: Mike received a letter from Dr. Ganus requesting that the SA or a club be responsible for organizing a program to assist the Cancer Society. The council discussed the possibility of referring this project to the Behavioral Science club. Discussion revealed the possibility of Ju Go Ju being interested. The motion was made that the cancer society project be referred to the Behavioral Science club. The motion was amended striking the Behavioral Science club and inserting Ju Go Ju. The amended motion was seconded and carried.

HOMECOMING: The motion was made that the SA council give a $25 prize to the student with the best idea for a 1974 homecoming theme. The motion was seconded and carried.

APPRECIATION IS EXPRESSED TO ALL WHO HAD A PART IN THE DIXILAND COFFEE HOUSE. IT WAS GREAT!!
